Changes in the state of affairs

In the opinions of the Directors, there were no significant changes in the state of affairs of the Company that occurred during the year under review not otherwise disclosed in this report or the financial report.

Environmental regulation

The Company's operations are not subject to any particular or significant environmental regulations under Commonwealth, State or Territory Law.

Likely developments, expected results of operations and business strategy

The Company will continue to act as a vehicle for PERLS III. Expected results are that the Company will continue to earn interest on Convertible Notes, pay dividends on PERLS III in accordance with the PERLS III Terms of Issue and pay dividends on the ordinary shares provided there is a surplus after paying dividends on PERLS III. There is currently no intention to make any further issue of securities.

Directors' and officers' insurance

During or since the financial year the Commonwealth Bank of Australia (the 'Bank'), the ultimate parent entity, has paid an insurance premium in respect of a contract insuring all current and former directors, secretaries, officers or public officers of the Company and any related bodies corporate (as defined in the insurance policy) against wrongful acts committed or allegedly committed including, but not limited to a liability for negligence or for reasonable costs and expenses incurred in defending proceedings, whether civil or criminal.

In accordance with commercial practice, the insurance policy prohibits disclosure of the terms of the policy including the nature of the liability insured against and the amount of the premium.

Directors' and officers' indemnity

The Constitution of the Company provides for the Company to indemnify each officer on a full indemnity basis and to the full extent permitted by law against all losses, liabilities, costs, charges and expenses ('Liabilities') incurred by the officer as an officer of the Company. The officers of the Company to whom the indemnity presently applies are any person who is, or has been, a director or secretary or senior manager of the Company. The indemnity is enforceable without the officer having to first incur any expense or make any payment, is a continuing obligation and is enforceable by the officer even though the officer may have ceased to be an officer of the Company. The extent of indemnity also applies to Liabilities incurred by the officer of the Company both before and after the adoption of the Constitution.

The officers of the Company also have the benefit of an indemnity, in similar terms to the indemnity in the Constitution of the Company, under a deed poll executed by the Bank.

Remuneration of Directors

The Company does not pay remuneration to its Directors or secretaries and has no employees. The Directors of the Company have been determined to be the key management personnel ('KMP') within the scope of AASB 124. The Directors are employees of the Bank and their role as KMP is incidental to their role as an employee of the Bank. All Directors' remuneration is borne by the ultimate parent entity and relates solely to other services performed with respect to their employment by Commonwealth Bank of Australia.

Note 1 Summary of significant accounting policies

General information

The General Purpose Financial Report ('Financial Report') of Preferred Capital Limited (the 'Company') for the year ended 30 June 2010, was approved and authorised for issue by the Board of Directors on 1 September 2010. The Directors have the power to amend and reissue the financial statements. These financial statements are the individual financial statements of the Company as an individual entity.

The Company is incorporated and domiciled in Australia. It is a company limited by shares. The address of its registered office is Ground Floor, Tower 1, 201 Sussex St., Sydney NSW 2000, Australia. Its immediate and ultimate parent entity is Commonwealth Bank of Australia (the 'Bank').

The Company's principal activity is to act as a special purpose vehicle for capital raising purposes as part of the Bank's capital management program. It was used to raise capital through the issue of Perpetual Exchangeable Repurchaseable Listed Shares (PERLS III) under a prospectus dated 3 March 2006. The gross proceeds of $1.17 billion received by the Company through the issue of PERLS III have been invested in Convertible Notes issued by the Bank's New Zealand branch ('CBA New Zealand').

The functional and presentational currency of the Company has been determined to be Australian Dollars (AUD) as this currency best reflects the economic substance of the underlying events and circumstances relevant to the Company.

The principal accounting policies adopted in the presentation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all years presented, unless otherwise stated.

(a) Bases of accounting

The Financial Statements for the year ended 30 June 2010 have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Act 2001, Australian Accounting Standards ('AAS's'), other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board ('AASB') and the Urgent Issues Group ('UIG') Interpretations.

The basis of the AASs are the International Financial Reporting Standards ('IFRS') as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ('IASB'). As a result of complying with AAS, the Financial Statements comply with IFRS and Interpretations issued by the IASB.

The preparation of the Financial Statements in conformity with AASs requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the Financial Statements. Further information is included in Note 1(m) Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates. The use of available information and the application of judgement are inherent in the formation of estimates. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

(b) Basis of preparation

The Financial Statements are prepared on the basis of historical cost convention.

During the year, the Company adopted the revised AASB 101 Presentation of Financial Statements and AASB 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures that were effective 1 January 2009. The revised AASB 101 standard requires the separate presentation of a Statement of Comprehensive Income and a Statement of Changes in Equity. All non-owner changes in equity must now be presented in the Statement of Comprehensive Income. As a consequence, the company had to change the presentation of its financial statements. Comparative information has been re-presented so that it is also in conformity with the revised standard.

There were no other new standards, interpretations or amendments required to be adopted by the Company during the financial year commencing 1 July 2009.

The Company did not early adopt any standards, interpretations or amendments during the financial year commencing 1 July 2009.

The following standards and amendments will be applied for the financial year commencing 1 July 2010:

- Revised AASB 107 Statement of Cash Flows which clarifies that only expenditure resulting in a recognised asset can be categorised as a cash flow from investing activities. The initial application of this revised standard is not expected to materially impact the financial results of the Company.
- Revised AASB 101 Presentation of Financial Statements which clarifies how to classify the liability component of a convertible instrument. The initial application of this revised standard is not expected to materially impact the financial results of the Company.

The following standard is not mandatory until accounting periods on or after 1 January 2013 but early adoption is permitted:

- AASB 9 Financial Instruments: Classification and Measurements which replaces the multiple classification and measurement models in AASB 139 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement with a single model that has only two classification categories: amortised costs and fair value. The Company is assessing the impact of this new standard, as well as the continued project to replace AASB 139.

The following standards are not mandatory until accounting periods beginning on or after 1 July 2013 but early adoption is permitted:

- AASB 1053 Application of Tiers of Australian Accounting Standards and AASB 2010-2 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards arising from Reduced Disclosure Requirements. This is the first stage of revisions to the differential reporting framework in Australia, and introduces a two-tier differential reporting regime that applies to all entities that prepare General Purpose Financial Statements. AASB1053 identifies the types of entities that must apply full IFRS as adopted in Australia (Tier 1) in preparing General Purpose Financial Statements, including for-profit private sector entities that have public accountability. Other entities, including for-profit private sector entities that do not have public accountability and all not-for-profit private sector entities, must apply as a minimum the Reduced Reporting Requirements (Tier 2) in preparing General Purpose Financial Statements. On 30 June 2010 the AASB officially introduced a revised differential reporting framework in Australia. Under this framework, a two-tier differential reporting regime applies to all entities that prepare general purpose financial statements. Preferred Capital Limited has public accountability as it is listed on the ASX and is therefore not eligible to adopt the new Australian Accounting Standards – Reduced Disclosure Requirements. As a consequence, the two standards will have no impact on the financial statements of the entity.

There are no other standards, amendments or interpretations available for early adoption at 1 July 2010 that will be applicable to the Company.

(c) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash at banks and money at short call with an original maturity of three months or less. They are brought to account at the face value or the gross value of outstanding balance.

(d) Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised and measured at the fair value of consideration received or receivable to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured. The source of revenue is interest income and Top-up payments from the ultimate parent entity.

Interest income

Interest income is recognised on an accruals basis using the effective interest method.

Top-up payments

Where the Company does not receive sufficient funds from the Convertible Notes to cover payments required on PERLS III, the Bank has the right under the 'Top-up Deed', in its absolute discretion to make a Top-up payment to cover the shortfall. Top-up payments are recognised only when approved by the Bank.

(e) Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities which are not at fair value are carried at cost or amortised cost.

Under AASB 132 and AASB 139, financial instruments are required to be classified into certain categories which determine the accounting treatment of the item. The company has adopted the following categories:

- Loans and other receivables
- Liabilities at amortised cost
- Equity

Derecognition of financial instruments

The derecognition of a financial instrument takes place when the Company no longer controls the contractual rights that comprise the financial instrument, which is normally the case when the instrument is sold, or all the cash flows attributable to the instrument are passed through to an independent third party and the risks and rewards have substantially been transferred.

(f) Loans and other receivables

Loans and other receivables are primarily financial assets with fixed and determinable payments that are not quoted on an active market and include Convertible Notes issued by CBA New Zealand. These amounts are initially recognised at fair value including direct and incremental transaction costs. They are subsequently valued at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

(g) Provisions for impairment

Loans and other receivables

The Company assesses at each balance date whether there is any objective evidence of impairment. If there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on loans and other receivables has been incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the assets' carrying amount and the present value of the expected future cash flows, discounted at the financial assets' original effective interest rate. Short-term balances are not discounted.

Loans and other receivables are presented net of provisions for impairment.

(h) Income tax

Income tax on the profit for the period comprises current and deferred tax.

Income tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantially enacted at the reporting date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax is provided using the liability method, providing for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes.

The amount of deferred tax provided is based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantially enacted at the reporting date and are expected to apply when the deferred tax asset is realised or the deferred tax liability is settled.

A deferred tax asset is recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the asset can be utilised. Deferred tax assets are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

The Commonwealth Bank of Australia Group ('the Group') has elected to be taxed as a single entity under the tax consolidation regime. In addition to the Group electing to be taxed as a single entity, the measurement and disclosure of deferred tax assets and liabilities has been performed in accordance with the principles in AASB 112, and on a standalone basis under UIG 1052. The Company is part of the Commonwealth Bank of Australia's tax consolidation group.

Any current tax liabilities/assets (after the elimination of intra-group transactions) and deferred tax assets arising from unused tax losses assumed by Commonwealth Bank of Australia (the 'Bank') from the subsidiaries in the tax consolidated group are recognised in conjunction with any tax funding arrangement amounts. Any difference between these amounts is recognised by the Company as an equity contribution from or distributions to the Bank.

The members of the tax consolidated group have entered into a tax funding arrangement which sets out the funding obligations of members of the tax consolidated group in respect of tax amounts.

(i) Provisions

A provision is recognised in the Statement of Financial Position when the Company has a legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, and where it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation can be made.

Provision for dividend

A provision for dividend payable is recognised when dividends are declared in the period in which they are approved by the Company's Directors and all terms and conditions set out in the PERLS III Terms of Issue are met.

The dividends payable to PERLS III holders are expected to be primarily sourced from interest paid on Convertible Notes issued by CBA New Zealand.

(j) Interest bearing liabilities

Interest bearing liabilities include PERLS III issued by the Company. PERLS III are initially recognised at fair value including direct and incremental transaction costs. They are subsequently valued at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

PERLS III may be exchanged for ordinary shares in the Bank, Bank PERLS III preference shares or a combination of Bank ordinary shares and cash after 6 April 2016 and, under certain circumstances as set out in the PERLS III Terms of Issue. PERLS III offers a non cumulative floating rate return. Dividends are reset quarterly commencing on 6 April 2006 and are payable quarterly in arrears.

(k) Payables and other liabilities

Payables and other liabilities include interest payable which is recognised on a time proportion basis using the effective interest rate method.

(l) Shareholders' equity

Ordinary share capital is the amount of paid up capital from the issue of ordinary shares and is classified as equity. Redeemable preference shares are classified as liabilities.

Retained profits are derived from revenue profits and are available for dividend.

(m) Critical accounting policies and estimates

These notes to the financial statements contain a summary of the Company's significant accounting policies. Certain of these policies are considered to be more important in the determination of the Company's financial position, since they may require management to make difficult, complex or subjective judgements, some of which may relate to matters that are inherently uncertain. During the year management have not been required to make any decisions of this nature.

Note 13 Financial risk management

Financial risk management is the process of identifying, assessing, reporting and taking action to mitigate risks. The objective is to achieve sustainable earnings and growth potential for investors. The Company may have an exposure to market, liquidity and credit risk. These risks are monitored and reported on a regular basis to key management personnel and ultimately the Board of Directors of the Company.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the future cash flows of financial instruments will fluctuate due to changes in market variables such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates and other prices.

The Company's primary source of income comes from interest payment from the investment in the Convertible Notes issued by CBA New Zealand branch. The Convertible Notes are an Australian dollar denominated, unquoted debt instrument. Hence the Company is not exposed to foreign exchange rate or price risk.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk arises from the possibility that changes in interest rates will affect future cash flows of financial instruments.

The interest on Convertible Notes and the dividend rate on PERLS III are calculated with reference to the 90 day Australian Bank Bill Swap Rate ('BBSW') and interest rate risk arising as a result of any movement in BBSW is generally passed on to the investors.

However if BBSW falls below 3.39%, the Company will not receive sufficient funds from the Convertible Notes to cover payments required on PERLS III. In such a situation, the interest rate risk is managed by requiring payments under the 'Top-up Deed' whereby the Bank will make payment to meet any shortfall. The 'Top-up Deed' payment will only be activated if the Board of the Bank (or a committee of the Board of the Bank) declares or otherwise resolves to make the Top-up payment and if none of the conditions described in the PERLS III Terms of Issue exist.

At 30 June 2010 if Australian Bank Bill Swap interest rates changed by +/- 1% (2009: +/- 1%) from the year end rates with all the other variables held constant, net profit and equity attributable to members of the Company would have been affected by $5.61 million gains/$1.37 million losses (2009: $5.19 million losses/$12.17 million losses).

Liquidity risk

Balance Sheet liquidity risk is the risk of being unable to meet financial obligations as they fall due.

The Company raised its funding through the issuance of PERLS III. Dividends payable to PERLS III holders will be sourced from interest paid on Convertible Notes issued by the Bank through its New Zealand branch. Dividends on PERLS III will only be paid if the Bank pays interest on the Convertible Notes in accordance with Convertible Note Deed. Interest will only be paid if the Board of the Bank declares or otherwise resolves to pay the interest and if no Deferral Condition exists. The Company has an obligation to pay dividends to PERLS III holders only to the extent that the Bank pays interest on the Convertible Notes.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the potential of loss arising from failure of a debtor or counterparty to meet their contractual obligations.

The Company's exposure to credit risk arises from the creditworthiness of the Bank. The Bank is a diversified financial services conglomerate with a credit rating of A+ by Standard & Poor's and A3 by Moody's for long term debt.

The maximum credit risk the Company is exposed to at any given time is equal to the carrying value of assets in the Statement of Financial Position. Carrying value of total assets as at 30 June 2010 is $1,178.26 million (2009: $1,174.77 million).

This exposure to the credit worthiness of the Bank is passed to investors in PERLS III. The Company has no obligation to make payments under PERLS III if payment is not received on the Convertible Notes.

Note 14 Disclosures about the fair value of financial instruments

These amounts represent estimates of the fair values of the Company's financial assets and financial liabilities at a point in time based on the following valuation methods and assumptions. Fair value is the amount for which an asset could be exchanged, or a liability settled, between knowledgeable, willing parties in an arm's length transaction. Market prices are used to determine fair value, where an active market (such as a recognised stock exchange) exists, as it is the best evidence of the fair value of a financial instrument. For financial instruments where no market price is available, the fair values presented in the following table have been estimated using present value or other estimation and valuation techniques based on market conditions existing at reporting dates.

It is the Company's intent to hold its financial instruments to maturity and therefore it is not probable that the net fair values shown would be realised in 2010.
