PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES

The Group's principal activities during the course of the financial year were the development of the digital advertising platform in glasses-free 3D (autostereoscopic), distribution of the digital displays and lottery gaming business in China.

There were no significant changes in the nature of the Group's principal activities during the year not otherwise disclosed in the report.

OPERATING RESULTS

The consolidated loss of the Group for the financial year after providing for income tax amounted to $341,301.

DIVIDENDS PAID OR RECOMMENDED

No dividends were paid or declared since the start of the financial year. With respect to the 2013 financial year, the directors have recommended that no dividend be paid.

REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

During the financial year under review, the Group continued to focus on its digital advertising in glasses-free 3D (autostereoscopic) and lottery gaming business. The Group moved its operation to Hong Kong after the successful raising A$3,480,000 from its IPO in February 2013. The Group commenced building its infrastructure and operation in Hong Kong to enter the growing advertising market in China.

Forecasters predict that China's advertising sector will continue to grow in double digit for the next 5 years as the economy and middle class continues to grow. The advertising market has seen the progression from simple 2D screens to more sophisticated larger LED displays. As the displays decrease in price it has now become more cost effective to provide more interactive and unique displays to capture the customers attention.

Today advertising industry has been transforming to more handheld devices and more distractions where advertisers are competing for audiences attention.

For the year under review, the Group's revenue was derived from the sale of its digital displays. The Group recorded a revenue of $1,216,754 (2012: $21,550) and recorded a loss for the year attributable to shareholders of $341,301 (2012: loss of $476,742). In the prior year, the revenue was mainly from the advertising business.

The Group also recognized from its investment in marketable securities an unrealized gain of $354,736 (2012: unrealized loss of $212,945 and realized loss of $242,870).

The Group recognized a loss after tax for the financial year of $341,301 (2012: loss of $484,930).

On 22 December 2012 the Company issued a prospectus to raise funding from a minimum of $3,000,000 to a maximum of $5,000,000 at a price of $0.20 per share. On 22 December 2012 the Company issued a supplemental prospectus and the prospectus was open on that date. On 14 December 2012 the Company applied to be quoted on the official list on the Australian Stock Exchange pursuant to the supplementary prospectus dated 22 December 2012. Pursuant to the supplemental prospectus, the offer was closed on 20 February 2013 where the Company raised a total of $3,480,000. The Company's shares were quoted on the Australian Stock Exchange on 25 February 2013.

CHANGES IN THE STATE OF AFFAIRS
No significant changes in the state of affairs of the Group occurred during the financial year.

SUBSEQUENT EVENTS
No matters or circumstances, besides those disclosed at Note 27, have arisen since the end of the financial year which significantly affected or may significantly affect the operations of the Group, the results of those operations, or the state of affairs of the Group in future financial years.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS
The focus of the Group is to continue to develop its digital media / advertising in glasses-free 3D (autostereoscopic) and lottery outlet activities, and the Board will be reviewing potential acquisitions that has added value to the Group. The future development is dependent on the ability to have sufficient resources in funding, technology and human capital to execute its business plans. Management will also seek synergistic acquisitions to build revenue and bring in resources to complement and to supplement our internal capabilities to become a leader in glasses-free 3D advertising platform.

REVIEW OF FINANCIAL POSITION
The net equity of the Group is $3,837,438 at 31 December 2013.

ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATIONS
The Company aims to ensure the appropriate standard of environmental care is achieved, and in doing so, that it is aware of and is in compliance with all environmental legislation. The directors of the Company are not aware of any breach of environmental legislation for the financial year under review.

SHARES UNDER OPTION
The Company has no share options outstanding during or at the end of the financial year.

REMUNERATION REPORT (AUDITED)
This remuneration report, which forms part of the directors' report, sets out information about the remuneration of each of CIMC's directors and senior management for the year ended 31 December 2013. The Group's policy for determining the nature and amount of remunerations of board members and senior executives of the Group is set out below.

The directors review the remuneration package of all directors and senior management on an ongoing basis. Remuneration packages are reviewed with due regard to performance and other relevant factors. The objective of the reward schemes is to both reinforce the short and long-term goals of the Group and to provide common interests between management and shareholders.

Remuneration packages contain the following key elements:

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial report is a general purpose financial report that has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, including Australian Accounting Interpretations, other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board and the Corporations Act 2001 as appropriate for for-profit entities. These financial statements also comply with International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board.

The financial report covers the entity of China Integrated Media Corporation Limited ('CIMC") and controlled entities. CIMC is a public company limited by shares, incorporated and domiciled in Australia. CIMC is an investment holding company and its subsidiaries carry out the business of the Group in Australia, Hong Kong and China.

The financial report was authorized for issue, in accordance with a resolution of directors, on 31 March 2014.

The following is a summary of the material accounting policies adopted by the Group in the preparation of the financial report. The accounting policies have been consistently applied, unless otherwise stated.

In accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, these financial statements present the results of the Group only. Supplementary information about the parent entity is disclosed at Note 26.

(a) Basis of Preparation

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis and are based on historical costs modified by the revaluation of selected non-current assets, financial assets and financial liabilities for which the fair value basis of accounting has been applied.

(b) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of China Integrated Media Corporation Limited and its subsidiaries at 31 December 2013 each year ("the Group"). Subsidiaries are entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group has control over an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity, and has the ability to use its power to affect those returns. Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the group and are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases. A list of controlled entities is contained in Note 15 to the financial statements. All controlled entities have a 31 December financial year end.

All inter-company balances and transactions between entities within the Group, including any unrealized profits or losses, have been eliminated upon consolidation.

Where controlled entities have entered or left the Group during the year, the operating results have been included form the date control was obtained or until the date control ceased.

Non-controlling interest in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income and statement of financial position of the Group. Losses incurred by the Group are attributed to the non-controlling interest in full, even if that results in a deficit balance.

Where the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the assets including goodwill, liabilities and non-controlling interest in the subsidiary together with any cumulative translation differences recognised in other comprehensive income. The Group recognises the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any investment retained together with any gain or loss in profit or loss.

(c) Income Tax

The charge for current income tax is based on the profit for the year adjusted for any non-assessable or disallowed items. It is calculated using the tax rates that have been enacted or are substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for all temporary differences, between carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and their respective tax bases, at the rates expected to apply when the assets are recovered or liabilities settled, based on those tax rates which are enacted or substantively enacted for each jurisdication. No deferred income tax will be recognized from the initial recognition of an asset or liability, excluding a business combination, where there is no effect on accounting or taxable profit or loss.

Current and deferred tax balances relating to amounts recognized directly in other comprehensive income and equity are recognized directly in other comprehensive income or equity, respectively.

Deferred income tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future tax profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be used.

The amount of benefits brought to account or which may be realized in the future is based on the assumption that no adverse change will occur in income taxation legislation and the anticipation that the Group will derive sufficient future assessable income to enable the benefit to be realized and comply with the conditions of deductibility imposed by the law.

(d) Segment Reporting

A business segment is identified for a group of assets and operations engaged in providing products or services that are subject to risks and returns that are different to those of other business segments. A geographical segment is identified when products or services are provided within a particular economic environment subject to risks and returns that are different from those of segments operating in other economic environments.

(e) Inventories

Finished goods are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value on a 'first in first out' basis. Cost comprises direct materials and delivery costs, direct labour, import duties and other taxes. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates and discounts received or receivable.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

(f) Leases

Leases of fixed assets where substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to the ownership of the asset, but not the legal ownership that are transferred to the entities in the Group are classified as finance leases.

Finance leases are capitalized by recording an asset and liabilities at the lower of the amounts equal to the fair value of the leased property or the present value of the minimum lease payments, including any guaranteed residual values. Lease payments are allocated between the reduction of the lease liability and the lease interest expense for the period.

Lease assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives where it is likely that the Group will obtain ownership of the assets or over the tem of the lease.

Lease payments for operating lease, where substantially all the risk and benefits remain with the lessor, are charged as expenses on a straight line basis unless another method is more representative of the pattern if the users benefit.

Lease incentive under operating lease are recognized as a liability and amortized on a straight-line basis over the life of the lease term.

(g) Impairment of Assets

At each reporting date, the Group reviews the carrying values of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have been impaired. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount of the assets, being the higher of the asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use, is compared to the asset's carrying value. Any excess of the asset's carrying value over its recoverable amount is expensed in profit or loss.

Impairment testing is performed annually for goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite lives.

Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the assets belongs.

(h) Investments and Other Financial Assets

i) Recognition
Financial instruments are initially measured at costs on trade date, which includes transaction costs, when the related contractual rights or obligations exist. Subsequent to initial recognition these instruments are measured as set out below.

ii) Financial assets at fair value through profit and loss
A financial asset is classified in this category if acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the short term or if so designed by management and within the requirements of AASB 139: Recognition and Measurement of Financial Instruments. Derivatives are also categorized as held for trading unless they are designated as hedges. Realized and unrealized gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of these assets are recognized in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

iii) Loans and receivables
Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determined payments that are not quoted in an active market and are stated at amortized costs using the effective interest rate methods.

(h) Investments and Other Financial Assets (continued)

iv) Financial liabilities
Non-derivative financial liabilities are recognized at amortized costs, comprising original debt less principal payments and amortization.

v) Fair value
Fair value is determined based on current bid prices for all quoted investments. Valuation techniques are applied to determine the fair value for all unlisted securities, including recent arm's length transactions, reference to similar instruments and options pricing models.

vi) Impairment
At each reporting date the Group assesses whether there is any objective evidence that a financial instrument has been impaired. Impairment losses are recognized in profit or loss.

(i) Plant and Equipment

Plant and equipment are measured on the cost basis.

The carrying amount of plant and equipment is reviewed annually by the directors to ensure it is not in excess of the recoverable amount from those assets. The recoverable amount is assessed on the basis of the expected net cash flows that will be received from the asset's employment and subsequent disposal. The expected net cash flows have not been discounted to their present values in determining recoverable amounts.

The depreciable amount of all fixed assets are depreciated over their estimated useful lives to the Group commencing from the time the assets is held ready for use.

Depreciation is calculated on a straight line basis to write off the net cost of each item of plant and equipment over their expected useful lives. The depreciation rates used for each class of depreciable assets s are generally as follows:

Class of fixed assets	Depreciation rate
Leasehold Improvement	5 years
Office Furniture and Equipment	3-5 years

Gains and losses on disposal are determined by deducting the net book value of the assets from the proceeds of sale and are booked to the profit and loss account in the year of disposal.

(j) Foreign Currency Translation

The functional currency of each of the group's entities is measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which that entity operates. The consolidated financial statements are presented in Australian dollars which is the parent entity's functional and presentation currency.

Foreign currency transactions
Foreign currency transactions are translated into functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the date of the transaction. Amount receivable and payable in foreign currencies at the end of the reporting period are converted at the rates of exchange ruling at that date.

The gains and losses from conversion of short term assets and liabilities, whether realized or unrealized, are included in profit or loss as they arise.

Foreign operations
The assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into Australian dollars using the exchange rates at the end of the reporting period. The revenues and expenses of foreign operations are translated into Australian dollars using the average exchange rates, which approximate the rate at the date of the transaction, for the period. All resulting foreign exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income through the foreign currency reserve.

The foreign currency reserve is recognised in profit or loss when the foreign operation or net investment is disposed of.

(k) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and a call deposits with banks or financial institutions, investments in money market instruments maturing within less than three months and net of bank overdrafts.

(l) Trade and others receivables

Trade receivables are recognised at original invoice amounts less an allowance for uncollectible amounts and have repayment terms between 30 and 90 days. Collectability of trade receivables is assessed on an ongoing basis. Debts which are known to be uncollectible are written off. An allowance is made for doubtful debts where there is objective evidence that the Group will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms. Objective evidence of impairment include financial difficulties of the debtor, default payments or debts more than 30 days overdue. On confirmation that the trade receivable will not be collectible the gross carrying value of the asset is written off against the associated provision.

(m) Trade and other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of the financial year which are unpaid. The amounts are unsecured and are paid on normal commercial terms.

(n) Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Fess paid on the establishment of loan facilities, which are not an incremental cost relating to the actual draw-down of the facility, are recognised as prepayments and amortised on a straight-line basis over the term of the facility.

(n) Borrowings (continued)

Borrowings are removed from the Statement of Financial Position when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in other income or other expenses.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

(o) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs incurred for the construction of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Other borrowing costs are expensed.

(p) Employee Benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations
Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits, annual leave and accumulating sick leave expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the reporting period are recognised in other liabilities in respect of employees' services rendered up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. Liabilities for non-accumulating sick leave are recognised when leave is taken and measured at the actual rates paid or payable.

Other long-term employee benefit obligations
Liabilities for long service leave and annual leave are not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the reporting period. They are recognised as part of the provision for employee benefits and measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees to the end of the reporting period using the projected unit credit method. Consideration is given to expected future salaries and wages levels, experience of employee departures and periods of service. Expected future payments are discounted using national government bond rates at the end of the reporting period with terms to maturity and currency that match, as closely as possible, the estimated future cash outflows.

Regardless of when settlement is expected to occur, liabilities for long service leave and annual leave are presented as current liabilities in the statement of financial position if the entity does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for at least 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

(q) Revenue

Revenue is recognised at the fair value of consideration received or receivable. Amounts disclosed as revenue are net of returns, trade allowances and duties and taxes paid. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognised:

Sale of Goods
Revenue from sale of digital displays is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have passed to the buyer and can be reliably measured. Risks and rewards are considered passed to buyer when goods have been delivered to the customer.

(r) Goods and Services Tax

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognized net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office. In these circumstance the GST is recognized as part of the cost of acquisition of the assets or as part of an item of expense. Receivables and payables in the Statement of Financial Position are shown inclusive of GST.

Cash flows are included in the statement of cash flows on a gross basis and the GST component of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities, which is recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority are classified as operating cash flows.

(s) Earnings per share

(i) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the profit attributable to equity holders of the company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares, by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the year.

(ii) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account the after income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares and the weighted average number of shares assumed to have been issued for no consideration in relation to dilutive potential ordinary shares.

(t) Issued Capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares or options for the acquisition of a business are not included in the cost of the acquisition as part of the purchase consideration.

1. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(u) Share based payments

Equity-settled share-based payments are measured at fair value at the date of grant. Fair value is measured by use of the Black & Scholes option pricing model. The expected life used in the model has been adjusted, based on management's best estimate, for the effects of non-transferability, exercise restrictions, and behavioral considerations.

The fair value determined at the grant date of the equity-settled share-based payments is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of shares that will eventually vest.

For cash-settled share based payments, a liability equal to the portion of the goods or services received is recognised at the current fair value determined at each reporting date.

(v) Fair Value

Fair values may be used for financial asset and liability measurement and as well for sundry disclosures.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. It is based on the presumption that the transaction takes place either in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market. The principal or most advantageous market must be accessible to, or by, the group.

Fair value is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their best economic interest.

The fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account the market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset at its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset at its highest and best use.

In measuring fair value, the group uses valuation techniques that maximise the use of observable inputs and minimise the use of unobservable inputs.

(w) New, revised or amending Accounting Standards and Interpretations

In the current year, the Group has adopted all of the new, revised or amending Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board ('AASB') that are mandatory for the current reporting period. The adoption of these Accounting Standards and Interpretations did not have any significant impact on the financial performance or position of the Group.

Australian Accounting Standards and Interpretations that have recently been issued or amended but are not yet mandatory, have not been early adopted by the Group for the annual reporting period ended 31 December 2013. The Group's assessment of the impact of these new or amended Accounting Standards and Interpretations, most relevant to the Group, are set out below.

Reference	Title	Summary	Impact on Group Financial Report	Application Date for Group
AASB 9	Financial Instruments	The revised AASB 9 incorporates the IASB's complted work on Phase 1 of its project to replace IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement of the classification and measurement of financial asstes and financial liabilities. In addition, the IASB completed its project on derecognition of financial instruments and hedging	The Group will adopt this standard from 1 January 2015 but the impact of its adoption is yet to be assessed by the Group.	1 January 2015*
AASSB 2013-5	Amendments to Accounting Standards – Investment Entities	The amendment requires a parent investment entity to measure its investments in subsidiaries at fair value through profit or loss in its consolidated and separate financial statements as well as introduces disclosure requirements for investment entities.	The amendments are expected to have no or minimal effect on the measurement and recognition of amounts in the financial report.	1 January 2014
AASB 2012-6	Amendments to Austrlian Accounting Standards – Mandatory Effective Date of AASSB 9 and Transition Disclosures	The amendments to ASSB 9 are no longer requiring to restate comparatives. Instead, additional disclosures on the effects of transition are required.	The Group will adopt this standard from 1 January 2015 but the impact of its adoption is yet to be assessed by the Group.	1 January 2015*

* The application date has been deferred to 1 January 2017 by AASB 2013-9 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards – Conceptual Framework, Materiality and Financial Instruments.

(x) Critical accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts in the financial statements. Management continually evaluates its judgments and estimates in relation to assets, liabilities, contingent liabilities, revenue and expenses. Management bases its judgments, estimates and assumptions on historical experience and on other various factors, including expectations of future events, management believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. The resulting accounting judgments and estimates will seldom equal the related actual results. The judgments, estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

(i) Provision for impairment of receivables

The provision for impairment of receivables assessment requires a degree of estimation and judgment. The level of provision is assessed by taking into account the recent sales experience, the ageing of receivables, historical collection rates and specific knowledge of the individual debtors financial position. The Group did not have any impairment charges during the year. Refer to Note 7 for further details.

(ii) Estimation of useful lives of assets

The Group determines the estimated useful lives and related depreciation and amortisation charges for its plant and equipment and finite life intangible assets. The useful lives could change significantly as a result of technical innovations or some other event. The depreciation and amortisation charge will increase where the useful lives are less than previously estimated lives, or technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold will be written off or written down. Refer to Note 11 for further details.

(iii) Income tax

The Group is subject to income taxes in the jurisdictions in which it operates. Significant judgment is required in determining the provision for income tax. There are many transactions and calculations undertaken during the ordinary course of business for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. The Group recognises liabilities for anticipated tax audit issues based on the Group's current understanding of the tax law. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the carrying amounts, such differences will impact the current and deferred tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made. Refer to Note 4 for further details.

(b) Accounts receivables which are past due but not impaired

Included in the Groups accounts receivable balance are debtors with an aggregate carrying amount of $90,625 (2012: $122) which are past due at the end of the reporting period for which the Group has not made provision for impairment loss as these balances has all been settled after the reporting period.

The amount due from related parties is unsecured, non-interest bearing and repayable on demand

The carrying value of trade receivables is considered reasonable approximation of fair value to the short term nature of the balance.

The maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date is the fair value of each class of receivables in the financial statements. Refer to Note 21(f) for further details of credit risk management.

Convertible Notes

a) In February 2010, the Company issued $20,000 convertible notes to 10 note holders; these convertible notes are non-interests bearing, redeemable by August 2012 and convertible at the same terms as the Company's IPO when the Company has submitted its shares for initial public offering on the Australian Securities Exchange ("IPO"). In October 2012, the note holders agreed to extend the loan for another year to August 2013. During the year, these convertible notes were converted to shares at the Company's IPO in February 2013.

b) In March 2010, the Company issued $67,100 convertible notes to 32 note holders and the terms of these convertible notes were an annual interest rate of 12%, redeemable at two year anniversary of the note by March – April 2012 and convertible on the same terms as the Company's future IPO. In October 2012, the note holders agreed to extend the loan to 31 December 2013. During the year, these convertible notes were converted to shares at the Company's IPO in February 2013.

Loans from related parties

These loans from related parties from the beginning of the year includes the following:

a) An $40,000 loan, plus accrued interests of $12,125 as at the balance sheet date, from a company owned and controlled by a director. This loan is unsecured, bears interest at 8% per annum and payable on 31 December 2013. This loan can be converted into shares of the Company at the same price and terms as set out in the Supplemental Prospectus issued on 21 December 2012 to a Prospectus lodged with ASX on 11 December 2012. During the year, this loan was converted to shares at the Company's IPO in February 2013.

b) In November 2012, the Group entered into a loan agreement with a company owned by a Director to purchase 2D and 3D displays totalling HK$7,983,300 equivalent to $990,991 to be used for the Group's 3D advertising business. Pursuant to the loan agreement, the loan amount of $976,000 will be repaid by the issuance of the Company's shares at the same price and terms offered as at the time the Shares are listed on the Australia Stock Exchange ("ASX"), provided that these shares are listed on the ASX by 31 December 2013, otherwise an interests of 5.25% per annum will be charged on the unpaid amount. During the year, this loan amount of $976,000 was converted to shares at the Company's IPO in February 2013.

c) The remaining balance of $32,287 in 2012 has been loaned by directors of the Company. These amounts are non-interest bearing and repayable on demand.

20. CONTINGENCIES

There are no material contingent liabilities or contingent assets of the Group at the end of the reporting period.

21. FINANCIAL RISK INSTRUMENTS

(a) Financial risk management objectives:

The Group is exposed to financial risk through the normal course of their business operations. The key risks impacting the Group's financial instruments are considered to be interest rate risk, price risk, foreign currency risk, liquidity risk, credit risk, and capital risk. The Group's financial instruments exposed to these risks are cash and short term deposits, receivables and trade payables.

The Group's managing director and chief financial officer monitor the Group's risks on an ongoing basis and report to the Board.

(b) Interest rate risk management

The Group is exposed to interest rate risk (primarily on its cash and cash equivalent), which is the risk that a financial instrument's value will fluctuate as a result of changes in the market interest rates on interests bearing financial instruments. The Group does not use derivates to mitigate these exposures.

The Group has adopted a policy of ensuring that as far as possible it maintains excess cash and cash equivalents in Hong Kong denominated accounts available at call. These accounts currently earn low interests.

The sensitivity analyses below have been determined based on the exposure to interest rates at the reporting date and the stipulated change taking place at the beginning of the financial year and held constant throughout the reporting period. A 50 basis point increase or decrease represents management's assessment of the possible change in interest rates.

At reporting date, if interest rates had increased/decreased by 50 basis points from the weighted average effective rate for the year, with other variables constant, the loss for the year would have been $2,070 lower (December 2012: Nil) / $2,070 higher (December 2012: Nil).

The following table summarizes interest rate risk for the Group, together with effective interest rates as at the reporting date.

2013	Weighted average effective interest rate	Floating interest rate $	Non interest bearing $	Total $
Financial Assets
Cash and cash equivalents	1.105%	474,536	948,221	1,422,757

Financial Liabilities
Trade and other payables		-	267,489	267,489
Total Financial Liabilities		-	267,489	267,489

(c) Price risk

The Group is exposed to price risk through its holding of ordinary shares listed on the Over-the-counter Bulletin Board. The value of the investment at reporting date is $1,098,618. An increase or decrease in price of 33.3%, while all other variables hold constant, would have a adverse / favourable effect on profit before tax of $366,206 per annum. The percentage change is based on the volatility of the price since the beginning of the current year.

(d) Foreign currency risk

The Group has net liabilities denominated in a foreign currency (Hong Kong Dollars) of $819,162 (assets $(848,877) less liabilities $(29,715) as at 31 December 2013. Based on this exposure, had the Australian dollar weakened or strengthened 5% against this foreign currency while all other variables hold constant, the Group's profit before tax would have been $6,764 higher or lower. The percentage change is the expected overall fluctuation of this foreign currency taking into account movements over the past 12 months. The actual foreign exchange gain for the year ended 31 December 2012 was $49,173.

(e) Liquidity risk management

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and term deposits, the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities and the ability to close out market positions. The Group manages liquidity risk by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows and matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities. The Group is expected to settle all the liability in 2014 from the cash reserves in the Group.

(f) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counter-party will default on its contractual obligations resulting in a financial loss to the Group. The Group's potential concentration of credit risk consists mainly of cash deposits with banks and accounts receivables with its customers. The Group's short term cash surpluses are placed with banks that have investment grade ratings. The Group considers the credit standing of counterparties and customers when making deposits and sales, respectively, to manage the credit risk. The Group does not have any material credit risk exposure to any single debtor or group of debtors under financial instruments entered into by the Group other than the accounts receivable at the report date which consist of two customers, whom have settled their outstanding balances in full after the reporting date. Considering the nature of the business at current, the Group believes that the credit risk is not material to the Group's operations.

The maximum exposure to credit risk, excluding the value of any collateral or other security, at the end of the reporting period, to financial assets, is represented by the carrying amount of cash and cash equivalents, trade and other receivables, net of any provisions for doubtful debts, as disclosed in the statement of financial positions and notes to the accounts.

Fair value of financial instruments
The following assets are recognized and measured at fair value on a recurring basis:
- Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss.

Fair value hierarchy

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed are categorized according to the fair value hierarchy as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included in level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly
Level 3: Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

21. FINANCIAL RISK INSTRUMENTS (continued)

Recognised fair value measurements

The following table set s out the Group's assets that are measured at fair value in the financial statements.

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss
- 31 December 2013	1,098,618	-	-	1,098,618
- 31 December 2012	629,354	-	-	629,354

There were no transfers during the year between level 1 and level 2 recurring fair value measurements.

The Group's policy is to recognize transfers into and of the different fair value hierarchy levels at the date the event or change in circumstances that caused the transfer occurred.

Disclosed fair values

The Group also has assets and liabilities which are not measured at fair values but for which fair values are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

Due to their short term nature, the carrying amounts of trade receivables (refer to Note 7) and payables (refer to Note 13) are assumed to approximate their fair values because the impact of discounting is not significant.

(g) Capital Management Risk

The Group's objective when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and to maintain a strong capital base sufficient to maintain future development of its business. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may return capital to Shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debts. The Group's focus has been to raise sufficient funds through equity to fund its business activities.

There were no changes to the Group's approach to capital management during the year. Risk management policies and procedures are established with regular monitoring and reporting.

Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries are subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

The capital structure of the Group consists of equity attributable to equity holders of the parent, comprising issued capital, reserves and accumulated losses as disclosed in Notes 16, 17, and 18 respectively.

22. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Transactions with related parties include the following:

(a) Loan Facilities

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE MEMBERS OF CHINA INTEGRATED MEDIA CORPORATION LIMITED

Report on the Financial Report

We have audited the accompanying financial report of China Integrated Media Corporation Limited, which comprises the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2013, the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information, and the directors' declaration of the consolidated entity comprising the company and the entities it controlled at the year's end or from time to time during the financial year.

Directors' Responsibility for the Financial Report

The directors of the company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act 2001 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In Note 1, the directors also state, in accordance with Accounting Standard AASB 101 Presentation of Financial Statements, that the financial statements comply with International Financial Reporting Standards.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the company's preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Independence

In conducting our audit, we have complied with the independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001. We confirm that the independence declaration required by the Corporations Act 2001, which has been given to the directors of China Integrated Media Corporation Limited, would be in the same terms if given to the directors as at the time of this auditor's report.

Opinion

In our opinion:

(a) the financial report of China Integrated Media Corporation Limited is in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, including:

   (i) giving a true and fair view of the consolidated entity's financial position as at 31 December 2013 and of its performance for the year ended on that date; and

   (ii) complying with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Regulations 2001; and

(b) the financial report also complies with International Financial Reporting Standards as disclosed in Note 1.

Report on the Remuneration Report

We have audited the Remuneration Report included in pages 5 to 6 of the directors' report for the year ended 31 December 2013. The directors of the company are responsible for the preparation and presentation of the Remuneration Report in accordance with section 300A of the Corporations Act 2001. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Remuneration Report, based on our audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Remuneration Report of China Integrated Media Corporation Limited for the year ended 31 December 2013 complies with section 300A of the Corporations Act 2001.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE
BY PETER WHELAN
TO THE DIRECTORS OF CHINA INTEGRATED MEDIA CORPORATION LIMITED

As lead auditor of China Integrated Media Corporation Limited for the year ended 31 December 2013, I declare that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, there have been no contraventions of:

1. The auditor independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 in relation to the audit; or
2. Any applicable code of professional conduct in relation to the audit;

This declaration is in respect of China Integrated Media Corporation Limited and the entities it controlled during the period.

Corporate Governance Statement

The Company's Corporate Governance Statement is structured with reference to the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Revised Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, which are as follows:

Principle 1 - Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

The primary responsibility of the Board of Directors of the Company is to oversee the business affairs of the Company and its controlled entities ("the Group") in order to protect and enhance the shareholders' interests. The Board's role is to ensure that the Group meets its obligations and responsibilities in all areas affecting all shareholders and the share market generally. The other responsibilities of the Board include:

- overseeing the Group's business affairs, including its control and accountability systems
- inputting into and approving of management's development of corporate strategy and performance objectives
- reviewing, approving and monitoring the progress of major capital expenditure, capital management and acquisitions and divestments
- reviewing and approving all financial and other reporting
- establishing, monitoring and regularly reviewing systems of internal compliance, risk management and control and systems of legal compliance that govern the operations of the Company and ensuring that they are operating effectively
- appointment, performance assessment and, if necessary, removal of the Chief Executive Officer (or equivalent)
- ratifying the appointment and/or removal, and contributing to the performance assessment of senior management, including the Chief Operating Officer and the Company Secretary

The Chair is responsible for leading the Board, ensuring Directors are properly briefed in all matters relevant to their roles and responsibilities, facilitating Board discussion and managing the Board's relationship with the Company's senior management.

Principle 2 - Structure the board to add value

The ASX Recommendations state that the:

- majority of a company's board should comprise independent Directors,
- the chair should be an independent director,
- the roles of chair and chief executive officer should not be exercised by the same person, and
- the board should establish a nomination committee.

The Board, during the reporting period had up to seven Directors and at the end of the period, comprises four Directors. The Board considers that one of these Directors, namely Mr. Loui Kotsopoulos satisfy the criteria for independence in the ASX recommendations while the other three Directors are not considered independent. A non-executive director is considered to be independent if the director:

- is not a substantial shareholder of the Company or an officer of, or otherwise associated directly with, a substantial shareholder of the Company;
- has not been employed in an executive capacity by the Company, or another group member, or has been a director after ceasing to hold any such employment within the last three years

- has not been a principal of a material professional adviser or material consultant to the Company or another group member or an employee materially associated with the service provided within the last three years;
- is not a material supplier or customer of the Company or other group member, or an officer of or otherwise associated directly or indirectly with a material supplier or customer; and
- has no material contractual relationship with the Company or another group member other than as a director or shareholder of the Company.

The Board does not currently comply with the recommendation that a majority of the Board should be independent Directors. However, the Board is of the view that the Board's current composition serves the interests of shareholders for the following reasons:

- all formal Board committees are comprised of a majority of non-executive Directors;
- under the Company's conflict-of-interest policy, all Directors have agreed not to participate in any decision in which they are conflicted;
- Mr. Loui Kotsopoulos is appointed as the Lead Independent Director to chair meetings involving any potential conflicts of interest; and
- after considering the needs of the Company and the board policies which have been put in place, it is the view of the Board that it is not in the interests of shareholders to incur the expense of additional independent Directors at this time.

The Board will endeavour to appoint more independent Directors who have relevant knowledge and skills to join the Board when the Board believes it is in the interests of shareholders to do so.

The Board does not currently comply with the recommendation that the chair of the Board be an independent director and the role of chair and chief executive officer should not be exercised by the same person. The Board appointed Mr. Con Unerkov as both Chairman and CEO because:

- Mr. Unerkov is a major shareholder who has an in-depth knowledge of the Company's main operation, advertising and lottery gaming business in China, and valuable working relationships in China.

However, the Board acknowledges the potential shortcoming of not following the recommendations during the period and is still in the process of seeking a suitable candidate to act as an independent Chair or Chief Executive Officer of the Company. When a suitable candidate is found, the current chair will step down from one of those two roles. In the meantime, the Board recognises that as an executive chair may not be able to provide an independent review of the performance of management, the Board has adopted the following governance polices:

- established clear protocols for handling conflicts of interest;
- appointed Mr. Loui Kotsopoulos as Lead Independent Director to chair meetings involving any potential conflicts of interest; and

Board composition

The skills, experience and expertise relevant to the position of each director who is in office at the date of the annual report and their term of office are detailed in the Directors' report. The Company undertakes an annual board performance review and considers the appropriate mix of skills required by the Board to maximise its effectiveness and its contribution to the Group.

Retirement and re-election

In accordance with the Constitution, other than the Managing Director, at least one third of the Directors are required to retire from office by rotation at each Annual General Meeting. Such retiring Directors are eligible for re-election. When a vacancy exists or an additional director is required, the Board has the power to appoint any person as a director who holds office only until the next Annual General Meeting at which time they can stand for re-election.

Nomination and appointment of new Directors

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for making recommendations of candidates for appointment as new Directors to the Board as a whole for consideration. If it is necessary to appoint a new director to fill a vacancy on the Board or to complement the existing Board, a wide potential base of possible candidates is considered. If a candidate is recommended by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, the Board assesses the qualifications of the proposed new director against a range of criteria including background, experience, professional skills, personal qualities, the potential for the candidate's skills to augment the existing Board, and the candidate's availability to commit to the Board's activities. If these criteria are met and the Board appoints the candidate as a director, that director (as noted previously) must retire at the next annual general meeting and will be eligible for election by shareholders at that meeting.

Knowledge, skills and experience

All Directors are expected to maintain the skills required to discharge their obligations to the Company. Directors are provided with papers, presentations and briefings on group businesses and on matters which may affect the operations of the Group.

Board access to information and independent advice

All Directors have unrestricted access to employees of the Group and, subject to the law, access to all company records and information held by group employees and external advisers. Consistent with ASX Principle 2, each director may, with the prior written approval of the Chairman, obtain independent professional advice to assist the Director in the proper exercise of powers and discharge of duties as a director or as a member of a Board committee. The Company will reimburse the Director for the reasonable expenses of obtaining that advice.

Conflicts of interest

Directors are required to avoid conflicts of interest and immediately inform their fellow Directors should a conflict of interest arise. Directors are also required to advise the Company of any relevant interests that may result in a conflict.

Directors are required to disclose any material personal interests and the relationship of these interests to the affairs of the Company. A director is required to provide an updated notice to disclose any new material personal interests or if there is any change in the nature or extent of a previously disclosed interest.

Where a matter in which a director has a material personal interest is being considered by the Board, that director must not be present when the matter is being considered or vote on the matter, unless all of the other Directors have passed a resolution to enable that director to do so or the matter comes within a category of exception under the Corporations Act 2001.

Principle 3 - Promote ethical and responsible decision making

Code of Conduct

The Company has an internal code of conduct which sets out principles to guide Directors and employees in carrying out their duties and responsibilities to the highest standards of personal and corporate integrity when dealing with the Company, its customers and suppliers and the community. The code covers areas such as conduct in the workplace, business conduct, protection of the Company's assets, confidentiality, non-solicitation of customers and employees, conflicts of interest and corporate opportunities. All Directors and employees are expected to act with the utmost integrity and objectivity, striving at all times to enhance the reputation and performance of the Company.

Share trading guidelines

The Company's securities trading policy provides that Directors and employees of the Company should not deal in the Company's shares while possessing any information which if generally available might have a material effect on the price or value of the securities. Directors and employees of the Company are advised only to deal in the Company's or its listed subsidiary's shares after a reasonable time gap has elapsed following the issue of an announcement to the Australian Securities Exchange, especially half-year and year end results. At this point the market will have absorbed the announcement and the information will be generally available. The policy also discourages trading on short-term considerations.

Diversity Policy

The Board believes that diversity includes, but is not limited to gender, age, ethnicity, and cultural background. The Company is committed to diversity and recognises the benefits arising from employee and board diversity and the importance of benefiting from all available talent.

The Company has no female board member and does not comply with Recommendations 3.2 and 3.3 of the Corporate Governance Council effective from 22 January 2013.

Principle 4 - Safeguard integrity in financial reporting

During the reporting period, the audit committee was structured so that it:

- consisted of a majority of non-executive Directors
- was chaired by an independent director, who was not chair of the board
- had two members, Mr. Loui Kotsopoulos (chair) and Mr. Bing He until his resignation on 15 May 2013.

The Audit Committee was formally given the duties to liaise with external auditors and ensure that the annual and half yearly statutory audits are conducted in an effective manner.

Audit recommendations, internal control matters and any other matter arising from the audit are reviewed and where necessary referred to the Board for further discussion. Recommendations from the auditors are considered, and if deemed appropriate implemented.

The Board reviews external audit reports to ensure that any major deficiencies or breakdowns in controls or procedures have been identified and prompt remedial action is taken by management. The Board also review the consolidated financial statements and other information distributed externally and accounting policies and practices.

The Directors review the performance of the external auditors and consider the re-appointment of the external auditors on an annual basis. An analysis of fees paid to the external auditors, including a breakdown of fees for non-audit services, is provided in the notes of the financial statements. It is the policy of the external auditors to provide an annual declaration of their independence to the Board.

Principle 5 - Make timely and balanced disclosure

The company secretary has been nominated as the person with primary responsibility for communications with the Australian Securities Exchange (“ASX”) and is required to be fully conversant with the ASX Continuous Disclosure Listing Rules. Each member of the Board has a responsibility to advise the company secretary of any relevant disclosure matters of which they become aware. All material information concerning the Company, including its financial situation, performance, ownership and governance are posted on the Company website to ensure all investors have equal and timely access.

Principle 6 - Respect the rights of shareholders

The Board aims to ensure that shareholders are informed of all major developments through the annual report, the half-yearly report and the encouragement of full participation in the Annual General Meeting. This is achieved by way of detailed reports on the half year and annual results and through the Chairman’s address at general meetings. Copies of announcements made to the ASX are available from the websites of the ASX, www.chinamedia.com.au, and the Company, www.chinamedia.com.au. The Company’s external auditor attends the annual general meetings and is available to answer shareholders’ questions which are submitted in writing to the company secretary no later than five business days before an annual general meeting.

Principle 7 – Recognise and manage risk

Risk identification and management

Consistent with ASX Principle 7, the Board is committed to the identification, monitoring and management of risks associated with its business activities and has embedded, in its management and reporting systems, a number of risk management controls. The Board acknowledges that it is responsible for the overall internal control and risk management framework, and recognises that no cost effective internal control and risk management system will preclude all errors and irregularities.

The Board has adopted a Risk Management Policy. The management of risk is the responsibility of all Directors, officers and employees of the Company. The Risk Management Policy contains the Company's risk profile and describes the policies and practices, the Company has in place to manage specific business risks.

Risk management and integrity of financial reporting

In accordance with ASX Principle 7, the Chief Executive Officer has provided the Board with a written statement for the year ended 31 December 2012 that:

- the statement given with respect to the integrity of the financial statements (referred to under the heading “Financial reporting” in Principle 4: Safeguard Integrity in Financial Reporting), was founded on a sound system of risk management and internal compliance and control which implements the policies adopted by the Board; and
- the Company’s risk management and internal compliance and control system, was operating efficiently and effectively in all material respects.

Principle 8 - Remunerate fairly and responsibly

The objective of the Company's executive reward framework is to ensure reward for performance and is competitive and appropriate for the results delivered. The framework aligns executive reward with the achievement of strategic objectives and the creation of value for Shareholders. The Board endeavours to ensure that executive reward satisfies the following key criteria for good reward governance practices:

- Competitive and reasonable;
- Acceptability to shareholders;
- Performance linkage/alignment of executive compensation;
- Transparency; and
- Capital Management.

A performance evaluation for senior executives too place in the reporting period and it was in accordance with the process disclosed. Further information to Directors' and executives' remuneration is set out in the Directors report and Note 24 to the financial statements.

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for:

- reviewing and implementing remuneration policies and practices for all Directors and management;
- the succession plans to maintain an appropriate balance of skills, experience and expertise on the Board; and
- assessing the necessary and desirable competencies of Board members; and

The Board undertakes an annual self assessment of its collective performance and its members. The Board was of the view that the Directors had the knowledge and information to discharge their responsibilities during the year. The Board assessed the performance of the executive management against pre-determined performance objectives. There are no schemes for retirement benefits other than statutory superannuation for non-executive Directors.

The current committee members during the reporting period were Mr. Loui Kotsopoulos and Mr. Bing HE until he resigned from the board on 15 May 2013. Mr. Kotsopoulos, an independent director, is the chairman of the committee. No member of the committee will participate in the determination of their own remuneration.

The Board committee reviews its own performance from time to time. The performance evaluation will have regard to the extent to which they have met their responsibilities.
