Equity interest in Amcom Telecommunications Limited

TPG Telecom Limited (ASX: TPM) announces that it has increased its equity interest in Amcom Telecommunications Limited (ASX: AMM) to approximately 18.6%.

TPG is a longstanding shareholder of Amcom and advises the market that it intends to vote its shares against the announced scheme of arrangement under which Vocus Communications Limited (ASX: VOC) proposes to acquire all of the outstanding shares it does not own in Amcom (the Current Scheme).

TPG supports the continued operation of Amcom as a standalone business under the stewardship of the current board of directors and management team.

TPG has no intention to make any counterproposal to the Current Scheme.
