

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT / MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release

8I Holdings Ltd (ASX: 8IH)

Formation of Private Equity Division

21 September 2015, Singapore

8I Holdings Ltd (ASX: 8IH) (“the Company”) is pleased to announce the formation of its Private Equity division.

The Company has appointed Ms Low Ming Li as Private Equity Manager. In addition, Ms Low will be joined by Ms Cindy Yap (Private Equity Manager) in October.

With Ms Low and Ms Yap’s experience in the Asian capital markets, they will be leading the private businesses and investment deals for the 8I Group according to its Value Investing methodology, which complements the Company’s investments in listed securities as well as the operations for its financial education and training seminar business.

Ms Low Ming Li (CA, ISCA)

Ms Low was previously with PricewaterhouseCoopers Singapore for over 13 years where she last served as the Associate Director (Assurance) with experience in business development, external audits, training and development. With her background and technical know-how in international financial reporting standards, Ms Low has strong relationships with large market capitalisation, government linked, sovereign wealth and multinational corporations and has had close interaction with a wide range of clientele across multiple industries.

Ms Cindy Yap (CACCS, IBF)

Ms Yap has been with Credit Suisse since 2005, with experience in both Investment and Private Banking. Her most recent role was Senior Account Manager for UHNWs worldwide under International Wealth Management. She also has extensive experience in structuring, facilitating and executing complex and collaborative deals for clients across Investment and Private Banking.

Executive Chairman of 8I Holdings Ltd, Mr Ken Chee commented, “We are blessed to have 2 capable financial professionals, Ms Low and Ms Yap to be part of our new and growing private equity division to empower growth in growing businesses that create sustainable value for humanity.”
