ASX Announcement

Court Application

iCandy Interactive Limited (Company) refers to its market announcements on 11, 12 and 19 January 2018 regarding its application to the Federal Court of Australia for orders providing for the retrospective curing of the offers for sale, or sale, by the subscribers of shares issued on 9 October 2017 (Placement Shares).

The Company advises that the matter has been listed to be heard by the Federal Court on 26 March 2018.

ASX has advised that it would be likely to reinstate the Company's shares to quotation upon receipt of an application by the Company requesting reinstatement and confirming compliance with its continuous disclosure obligations, and in the absence of a court order declaring that the issue or sale of the Placement Shares was invalid. Accordingly, the Company's shares will remain in voluntary suspension until such time as orders are made by the Federal Court, unless otherwise advised.

The Company will continue to advise the market accordingly.
