Overview of the transaction

OZ Minerals Limited ("OZ Minerals") today announces that it intends to make an off-market takeover offer to acquire all the shares (the "Offer") of Avanco Resources Limited ("Avanco"), a Brazilian-focused copper/gold mining company. Avanco shareholders will receive A$0.085 cash and 0.009 OZ Minerals shares per Avanco share (the "Offer Consideration").

The acquisition of Avanco would immediately add to OZ Minerals' copper production profile and provides expansion options in the highly prospective Carajás copper province and Gurupi gold belt in Brazil.

The OZ Minerals Board believes the combination of OZ Minerals' strong free cash flow generation and balance sheet position, and Avanco's suite of high grade, high growth assets, is compelling for shareholders of OZ Minerals.

OZ Minerals Chairman, Rebecca McGrath said: "Avanco is a good strategic fit for OZ Minerals, diversifying our portfolio and adding to our organic growth pipeline with its development and exploration opportunities in the Carajás province. Brazil is a stable jurisdiction that is supportive of mining with a reliable mining code. Avanco is a disciplined acquisition representing approximately 16% of OZ Minerals' market capitalisation."

OZ Minerals Chief Executive Andrew Cole said: "We are excited about acquiring Avanco as it is aligned to our multi-asset, province-focused growth strategy. Not only does it immediately contribute copper tonnes to our production profile, it offers significant additional new growth options and a meaningful footprint in the highly prospective Carajás province as well as the Gurupi greenstone gold belt in Brazil."

"From our due diligence process, we are confident both companies are culturally aligned. We believe combining Avanco's experienced in-country management team with OZ Minerals' funding capacity and underground technical expertise will accelerate and enhance the growth and development prospects of Avanco's assets. On completion of the transaction, we will undertake a business execution review to hone our pathway to optimizing the portfolio, improving operating costs to position the business in the bottom half of the cost curve, and accelerate growth."

The Offer Consideration values Avanco at A$0.17p.s.⁵ or A$418 million total equity value⁶ and represents a premium of:

- 121% to the Last Close Price of 0.077, being the price of Avanco's shares on ASX at the close of trading on 26 March 2018,
- 119% to Avanco's 1-month VWAP of A$0.078p.s. up to and including 26 March 2018, and
- 104% to Avanco's 3-month VWAP of A$0.083p.s. up to and including 26 March 2018.

OZ Minerals intends to fund the cash component of the Offer Consideration using available cash on balance sheet. OZ Minerals has elected to offer partial scrip consideration to maintain flexibility in relation to its capital management initiatives as it constructs Carrapateena, progresses the West Musgrave project pre-feasibility study, advances its concurrent exploration programs, and ensures sufficient capacity is retained to pursue further growth options for the benefit of shareholders. If the Offer is successful, Avanco shareholders will own up to 7.3% of the pro forma shares of OZ Minerals.

Key Avanco management personnel have confirmed their intention to accept the Offer (in the absence of a superior proposal) for any new Avanco shares issued upon exercise of their Avanco options.

Strategic rationale

The transaction is consistent with OZ Minerals' objective of becoming a multi-asset, copper-core, global modern mining company. The acquisition will provide OZ Minerals with a potential organic pathway to seven mines in the next six years (Prominent Hill, Carrapateena, West Musgrave, Antas, CentroGold, Pedra Branca and Pantera). It will have expansive land holdings in Australia and Brazil with significant exploration and consolidation potential for long term growth, and a strong balance sheet position that preserves flexibility to maximise shareholder value.

Avanco has:

- the second largest land holding (~1,800km²) and a Mineral Resource base of greater than 1Mt contained copper in the highly prospective Carajás province in Brazil, which is a premier mineral-hosting region with a large concentration of high tonnage Iron Oxide Copper Gold (IOCG) deposits, and
- one of the largest land holdings (~1,370km²) in the Gurupi greenstone gold belt in Brazil.

Avanco has a high grade asset portfolio, currently producing 12Kt to 14Kt per annum copper. Within the next six years OZ Minerals aims to be a 50Kt+ per annum producer of copper and 100Koz+ producer of gold at bottom half costs from its Brazilian portfolio. The portfolio comprises:

- 100% of the Antas open pit copper/gold mine in the Carajás province, which produced ~14Ktpa copper at a C1 cash cost of US$1.64/lb in 2017,
- 100% of the Pedra Branca underground copper/gold project in the Carajás province, which has a Mineral Resource estimate containing 427Kt copper and 357Koz gold (17.67Mt at 2.4% copper grade and 0.65g/t gold grade, respectively)⁷,
- 100% of the CentroGold open pit gold project in the Gurupi greenstone gold belt, which is one of the largest undeveloped gold projects in Brazil with a Mineral Resource estimate containing 2.2Moz gold (32.8Mt at 2.1 g/t grade)⁸,
- an option to acquire 100% of the Pantera copper/gold tenement in the Carajás province ~110 kilometres west of Pedra Branca, which has a Mineral Resource estimate containing 350Kt copper and 140Koz gold (20.8Mt at 1.7% copper grade and 0.2g/t gold grade, respectively)⁹ within a 100km² exploration license. Pantera is likely to be an open pit mine, and
- an extensive portfolio of advanced exploration targets and medium term projects proximate to Avanco's existing and proposed mine infrastructure.

OZ Minerals will retain and benefit from Avanco's in-country Brazilian management team and employees, who have a proven track record of project delivery and maintaining strong local stakeholder relationships in Brazil. A strong team combined with OZ Minerals' devolved operating model enables the Brazilian assets to be bolted on, simplifying integration.

The transaction is expected to be earnings accretive for OZ Minerals shareholders by year two.

Bid Implementation Deed

OZ Minerals and Avanco have entered into a Bid Implementation Deed ("BID") (see attached) pursuant to which the parties have given undertakings to each other in order to facilitate the Offer.

A break fee may also be payable by Avanco to OZ Minerals in certain circumstances.

OZ Minerals agrees that, subject to section 617 of the Corporations Act, it will extend Offers to all Avanco Shares that are issued as a result of the exercise of any Avanco Options during the period from the date set under section 633(2) of the Corporations Act to the end of the Offer Period.

- (b) Nothing in this clause 3.4 prevents Avanco or the Avanco Board from taking, or failing to take, action where to do otherwise would, in the opinion of the Avanco Board (determined in good faith and acting reasonably after receiving written legal advice from external lawyers), constitute a breach of the Avanco Directors' fiduciary or statutory duties or where that would be permitted by clause 4.1(b)(6).
- (c) Each party must keep the other promptly and reasonably informed of the steps it has taken and its progress towards satisfaction of the Bid Conditions, and promptly notify the other if it becomes aware that any Bid Condition has been satisfied.  - (6) OZ Minerals has not announced or otherwise formally proposed to Avanco a matching or superior proposal to the terms of the actual, proposed or potential Competing Proposal by the expiry of the 5 Business Day period in clause 11.4(a)(5) above.
- (b) If OZ Minerals proposes to Avanco, or announces, amendments to the terms of the Takeover Bid including increasing the amount of consideration offered under the Offer or a new proposal that constitutes a matching or superior proposal to the terms of the actual, proposed or potential Competing Proposal (OZ Minerals Counterproposal) by the expiry of the 5 Business Day period in clause 11.4(a)(5) above, Avanco must procure that the Avanco Board considers the OZ Minerals Counterproposal and if the Avanco Board, acting reasonably and in good faith, determines that the OZ Minerals Counterproposal (as completed) would provide an equivalent or superior outcome for Avanco Shareholders as a whole compared with the Competing Proposal, then Avanco and OZ Minerals must use their best endeavours to agree the amendments to this deed that are reasonably necessary to reflect the OZ Minerals Counterproposal and to implement the OZ Minerals Counterproposal, in each case as soon as reasonably practicable, and Avanco must procure that each of the directors of Avanco continues to recommend the Takeover Bid (as modified by the OZ Minerals Counterproposal) to Avanco Shareholders.

11.5 Cease discussions

Avanco must, and must procure that its Related Bodies Corporate, cease any discussions or negotiations existing as at the date of this deed relating to:

- (a) any actual, proposed or potential Competing Proposal; or
- (b) any transaction that would, or would reasonably be expected to, reduce the likelihood of success of the Takeover Bid.

11.6 Provision of information by Avanco

- (a) Subject to clause 11.6(b), during the Exclusivity Period, Avanco must as soon as possible provide OZ Minerals with:
 - (1) in the case of written materials, a copy of; and
 - (2) in any other case, a written statement of,any material non-public information about the business or affairs of Avanco or the Avanco Group disclosed or otherwise provided to any Third Party in connection with an actual, proposed or potential Competing Proposal that has not previously been provided to OZ Minerals.
- (b) Avanco will not, and will procure that none of its Related Persons provide any information to a Third Party in relation to an actual, proposed or potential Competing Proposal, unless:
 - (1) permitted by clause 11.2; and
 - (2) that Third Party has entered into a confidentiality agreement with Avanco on customary terms and which is no more favourable to the Third Party than the Confidentiality Agreement.

11.7 Compliance with law

- (a) If it is finally determined by a court, or the Takeovers Panel, that the agreement by the parties under this clause 11 or any part of it:
 - (1) constituted, or constitutes, or would constitute, a breach of the fiduciary or statutory duties of the Avanco Board;
 - (2) constituted, or constitutes, or would constitute, 'unacceptable circumstances' within the meaning of the Corporations Act; or
 - (3) was, or is, or would be, unlawful for any other reason, then, to that extent (and only to that extent) Avanco will not be obliged to comply with that provision of clause 11.

- (b) The parties must not make or cause to be made, any application to a court or the Takeovers Panel for or in relation to a determination referred to in this clause 11.7.

12 Reimbursement Fee

12.1 Background to Reimbursement Fee

- (a) Each party acknowledges that, if they enter into this deed and the Takeover Bid is subsequently not implemented, OZ Minerals will incur significant costs, including those set out in clause 12.4.
- (b) In these circumstances, the parties have agreed that provision be made for the payment outlined in this clause 12, without which OZ Minerals would not have entered into this deed or otherwise agreed to implement the Takeover Bid.
- (c) Avanco and the Avanco Board believe, having taken advice from its external legal adviser and Financial Adviser, that the implementation of the Takeover Bid will provide benefits to it and its shareholders, and that it is reasonable and appropriate that Avanco agree to the payments referred to in clauses 12.2 in order to secure OZ Minerals' participation in the Takeover Bid.

12.2 Reimbursement Fee triggers

Subject to clauses 12.5 and 12.8, Avanco must pay the Reimbursement Fee to OZ Minerals without set-off or withholding, if:

- (a) during the Exclusivity Period, any one or more members of the Avanco Board withdraws, adversely revises or adversely qualifies his or her support of the Takeover Bid or his or her recommendation that Avanco Shareholders accept the Offer or fails to recommend that Avanco Shareholders accept the Takeover Bid in the manner described in clause 2.3, or, having made such a recommendation, withdraws, adversely revises or adversely qualifies that recommendation for any reason;
- (b) during the Exclusivity Period, any one or more members of the Avanco Board recommends that Avanco Shareholders accept or vote in favour of, or otherwise supports or endorses (including support by way of accepting or voting, or by way of stating an intention to accept or vote, in respect of any Avanco Shares held or controlled by them or held on their behalf), a Competing Proposal of any kind that is announced (whether or not such proposal is stated to be subject to any pre-conditions) during the Exclusivity Period;
- (c) a Competing Proposal of any kind is announced during the Exclusivity Period (whether or not such proposal is stated to be subject to any pre-conditions) and, within 12 months of the date of such announcement, a Third Party completes a Competing Proposal of the kind referred to in paragraphs 1 (but only where the acquisition is through an issue of new Avanco Shares equal to more than 20% of Athena's share capital), 2, 3 and 4 of the definition of Competing Proposal; or
- (d) OZ Minerals has terminated this deed pursuant to clauses 13.1(a)(1), 13.1(b)(1) or 13.2(a).

12.3 Timing of payment of Reimbursement Fee

- (a) A demand by OZ Minerals for payment of the Reimbursement Fee under clause 12.2 must:
- (1) be in writing;
 - (2) be made after the occurrence of the event in that clause giving rise to the right to payment;
 - (3) state the circumstances which give rise to the demand; and
 - (4) nominate an account into which Avanco is to pay the Reimbursement Fee.
- (b) Subject to clause 12.8, Avanco must pay the Reimbursement Fee into the account nominated by OZ Minerals, without set-off or withholding, within 5 Business Days after receiving a demand for payment where OZ Minerals is entitled under clause 12.2 to the Reimbursement Fee.

12.4 Basis of Reimbursement Fee

The amount payable by Avanco pursuant to clause 12.2 is purely and strictly compensatory in nature and has been calculated to reimburse OZ Minerals for costs including the following:

- (a) fees for legal, financial and other professional advice in planning and implementing the Takeover Bid (excluding success fees);
- (b) reasonable opportunity costs incurred in engaging in the Takeover Bid or in not engaging in other alternative acquisitions or strategic initiatives;
- (c) costs of management and directors' time in planning and implementing the Takeover Bid; and
- (d) out of pocket expenses incurred by OZ Minerals and OZ Minerals' employees, advisers and agents in planning and implementing the Takeover Bid, and the parties agree that:

- (e) the costs actually incurred by OZ Minerals will be of such a nature that they cannot all be accurately ascertained; and
- (f) the amount payable by Avanco is a genuine and reasonable pre-estimate of those costs, and Avanco represents and warrants that it has received advice from its external legal adviser on the operation of this clause 12.

12.5 Compliance with law

- (a) This clause 12 does not impose an obligation on Avanco to pay the Reimbursement Fee to the extent (and only to the extent) that the obligation to pay the Reimbursement Fee:
- (1) is declared by the Takeovers Panel to constitute 'unacceptable circumstances'; or
 - (2) is determined to be unenforceable or unlawful by a court,
- provided that, in either case, all lawful avenues of appeal and review, judicial and otherwise, have been exhausted. For the avoidance of doubt, any part of the Reimbursement Fee that would not constitute unacceptable circumstances or that is not unenforceable or unlawful (as applicable) must be paid by Avanco.

- (b) The parties must not make or cause to be made, any application to the Takeovers Panel or a court for or in relation to a declaration or determination referred to in clause 12.5(a).

12.6 Reimbursement Fee payable only once

12.7 Avanco limitation of liability

Notwithstanding any other provision of this deed, except in relation to a wilful or intentional breach of or non-compliance with any provision of this deed by Avanco:

- (a) the maximum liability of Avanco to all other parties under or in connection with this deed including in respect of any breach of this deed will be the Reimbursement Fee;
- (b) a payment by Avanco in accordance with this clause 12 represents the sole and absolute liability of Avanco and any Avanco Indemnified Party under or in connection with this deed and no further damages, fees, expenses or reimbursements of any kind will be payable by Avanco in connection with this deed; and
- (c) the amount of the Reimbursement Fee paid to OZ Minerals under this clause 12 shall be reduced by the amount of any loss or damage recovered by any other party in relation to a breach of this deed.

12.8 Refund

Despite anything to the contrary in this deed, the Reimbursement Fee will not be payable to OZ Minerals if OZ Minerals becomes the holder of more than 50% of the Avanco's Shares as a result of the Takeover Bid, notwithstanding the occurrence of any event in clause 12.2 and, if the Reimbursement Fee has already been paid OZ Minerals it must be refunded to Avanco.
