INCIDENT AT DAISY COMPLEX UNDERGROUND MINE

Silver Lake Resources Limited ("Silver Lake" or the "Company") is saddened to advise that an underground contractor at its Daisy Complex mine at Mount Monger has passed away this morning.

An investigation into the circumstances of the contractor's passing is under way and the WA Department of Mines, Industry Regulation and Safety has been notified.

Underground operations at the Daisy Complex mine have been temporarily suspended in accordance with normal statutory requirements.

Silver Lake Managing Director Luke Tonkin expressed the Company's deepest sympathy to the worker's family, friends and colleagues.

Silver Lake will provide a further update as and when appropriate.
