EP&T Announces Completion of Institutional Entitlement Offer and Placement

25 November 2022

Building energy optimisation company EP&T Global Limited (ASX: EPX) (EP&T or the Company) is pleased to announce completion of the institutional component of a capital raising announced on Thursday, 24 November 2022 comprising a placement to sophisticated and professional investors, a conditional placement to certain directors, and a 1-for-1.47 pro rata accelerated non-renounceable entitlement offer (together the Capital Raising). The Capital Raising is being undertaken at an offer price of A$0.025 per new ordinary share (Share) (Offer Price) to raise approximately A$5.0 million.

The placement and the institutional component of the entitlement offer raises a total of $3.7 million through the issue of approximately 148 million new Shares, and the conditional placement will raise a total of A$0.5 million (subject to obtaining shareholder approval) through the issue of approximately 19 million new Shares (Conditional Placement). The available institutional component of the entitlement offer was $3.1 million and $2.7 million was subscribed for, being 85% of the entitlement. The institutional shortfall was taken up by a combination of existing and new institutional and sophisticated shareholders.

New Shares to be issued under the institutional component of the entitlement offer and the placement will rank equally with existing EP&T shares and are expected to be issued on Thursday 1 December 2022. Trading will commence on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) on the same day. The new Shares to be issued under the Conditional Placement are proposed to be issued following receipt of shareholder approval to be sought at an extraordinary general meeting (EGM) of the Company, the details of which will be announced separately.

Funds will be used for working capital, including product development, as the Company progresses towards operating cashflow break even targeted in Q3 FY23, installation of contracted project backlog to drive Annualised Recurring Revenues and to fund future growth opportunities.

Interim CEO, John Balassis, said “EP&T has some good momentum in all its key markets, within the current macro operating environment, leading us to announce an FY23 Annualised Contract Value target of between $15.0 million and $16.0 million. In addition, with the work undertaken over the past few months, we announced our target to reach operational cash flow break-even by the end of Q3FY23. The funds from the Capital Raising will be deployed to assist EP&T meet the working capital requirements to achieve these targets as well as fund future growth opportunities.

It is extremely pleasing that a high proportion of our key shareholders have shown their ongoing support for the Company by participating in the Capital Raising, and we thank them for their ongoing support”.

Commencement of the Retail Entitlement Offer

The retail component of the entitlement offer seeks to raise a further A$0.9 million through a 1-for-1.47 offer of approximately 38 million Shares at the Offer Price (Retail Entitlement Offer).

The Retail Entitlement Offer is partially underwritten by parties including certain Directors up to A$0.3 million. The Company has also received commitments under the Retail Entitlement Offer from existing sophisticated shareholders of $0.2 million.

The Retail Entitlement Offer is open to eligible retail shareholders with a registered address in Australia or New Zealand (or other jurisdictions agreed by the Company) as at 7.00pm Sydney time on Monday, 28 November 2022 (Record Date) (or eligible institutional and sophisticated shareholders not included in the Institutional Entitlement Offer) will be entitled to participate in the Retail Entitlement Offer, subject to the terms and conditions set out in the retail offer booklet proposed to be dispatched to eligible retail shareholders on or around Wednesday, 30 November 2022 (Retail Offer Booklet).

EP&T will notify retail shareholders who are on the share register on the Record Date as to whether they are eligible to participate in the Retail Entitlement Offer. Retail shareholders who are eligible to participate will receive a Retail Offer Booklet, including a personalised entitlement and acceptance form, which will provide further details of how to participate in the Entitlement Offer.

Eligible retail shareholders can choose to take up their entitlement in full, in part or not at all. Those eligible retail shareholders who subscribe for their entitlement in full, may also apply for additional Shares in excess of their entitlement (Additional Shares). Additional Shares will only be available where there is a shortfall between applications received from eligible retail shareholders and the number of Shares available to be issued under the Retail Entitlement Offer, and applications for Additional Shares may be subject to scale-back, at the Company’s discretion.

Certain institutional and sophisticated investors may be invited by the Company to participate in any shortfall remaining after Additional Shares are allocated to eligible retail shareholders. Any remaining shortfall from the Retail Entitlement Offer up to A$0.3 million in aggregate (Underwritten Amount) is underwritten by parties including Directors Jonathan Sweeney, John Balassis, and Victor van Bommel (or their related entities) (Underwriters). The allocation of Additional Shares and any remaining shortfall Shares will be in the Board’s absolute discretion, with the Underwriters committed to subscribe for the residual shortfall up to the Underwritten Amount.
