Dear Shane

Response to Leo Lithium Limited (LLL) Aware Query

We refer to your letter dated 6 September 2023 (Letter). Capitalised terms used in this letter have the meaning given in your Letter unless otherwise defined.

LLL received the Correspondence after the ASX market closed on 17 July 2023.

After receipt of the Correspondence, LLL requested a pause in trading and trading halt before any trading in LLL shares could occur.

Set out below are LLL's responses to the questions in the Letter.

1. Does LLL consider the Information to be information that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of its securities? In answering this question, please comment specifically on the Price Movement and that the Announcement was marked 'market-sensitive'.

Yes.

In relation to your request for LLL to comment specifically on the Price Movement, LLL attributes the Price Movement to several factors including the totality of the information in the Announcement and external factors (such as an approximate 20% decline in the share price of peer companies on the ASX and an approximate 33% decline of average lithium chemicals prices during the period of suspension etc).

2. If the answer to question 1 is "no", please advise the basis for that view, commenting specifically on the Price Movement.

Not applicable.

3. When did LLL first become aware of the Information, or any part thereof? In answering this question, please provide the following information:

3.1 The time and date LLL received the Correspondence; and

The Correspondence was first received by representatives of LLL in Mali at approximately 9:30pm Australian Western Standard Time (AWST) on 17 July 2023. LLL's managing director then received the Correspondence in French from LLL's Mali team at 10:27pm AWST on 17 July 2023, and he subsequently received the English language translation of the Correspondence at 5:04am AWST on 18 July 2023.

3.2 The time zone in which LLL received the Correspondence.

Refer to Item 3.1 above.

4. If the answer to question 1 is “yes” and LLL first became aware of the Information before the Relevant Date, did LLL make any announcement prior to the Relevant Date which disclosed the Information? If so, please provide details. If not, please explain why this Information was not released to the market at an earlier time, commenting specifically on when you believe LLL was obliged to release the Information under Listing Rules 3.1 and 3.1A and what steps LLL took to ensure that the Information was released promptly and without delay.

LLL did not make any announcement prior to the Relevant Date which disclosed the Information. Rather, in accordance with ASX's guidance, LLL requested a pause in trading and a trading halt following receipt of the Correspondence, to ensure that no trading of LLL shares occurred until the subsequent suspension from trading was ultimately lifted by the Announcement.

LLL considered the Information to be (among other things) a confidential and incomplete proposal or negotiation and insufficiently definite to warrant disclosure, pursuant to the limbs of Listing Rule 3.1A. The limbs of Listing Rule 3.1A continued to apply to the Information until it ceased being confidential by the disclosure of the Information in the Announcement.

5. Please confirm that LLL is complying with the Listing Rules and, in particular, Listing Rule 3.1.

LLL confirms it is in compliance with the Listing Rules and, in particular, Listing Rule 3.1.

6. Please confirm that LLL's responses to the questions above have been authorised and approved in accordance with its published continuous disclosure policy or otherwise by its board or an officer of LLL with delegated authority from the board to respond to ASX on disclosure matters.

Yes, LLL's responses to the questions above have been authorised and approved by the board of LLL.

Yours sincerely

Nathan Bartrop
Joint Company Secretary

“Whether information has the quality of being confidential is a question of fact, not one of the intention or desire of the listed entity.
