EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

This Explanatory Memorandum has been prepared to provide information which the Directors believe to be material to Shareholders to help them determine how to vote on the Resolutions set out in the Notice of Meeting.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND REPORTS

Under the Corporations Act 2001, the Company's 2023 Annual Report to Shareholders, which includes the financial report, as well as the Directors' report (which includes the Remuneration Report) and the Auditor's report, must be laid before the Meeting. The Company's 2023 Annual Report is available on the Company's website at www.silex.com.au and has been sent to those Shareholders who have elected to receive a printed copy in the mail. Shareholders are not required to vote on the financial report or the Directors' and Auditor's reports. However, an opportunity for Shareholders to discuss these reports will be provided at the Meeting. Shareholders may also submit questions in advance of the meeting as outlined on page 1 of this Notice of Meeting.

RESOLUTION 1 – ADOPTION OF THE REMUNERATION REPORT

The Directors' report for the year ended 30 June 2023 contains the Remuneration Report, which sets out the policy for the remuneration of the Directors and other Key Management Personnel. The Remuneration Report is set out on pages 31 to 48 of the Company's 2023 Annual Report which is available from the Company's website at www.silex.com.au. An opportunity to discuss the Remuneration Report will be provided at the Meeting.

The Company's remuneration strategy is designed to provide a link between the achievement of the Company's strategic objectives and executive rewards. It is designed to reward, motivate and retain the Company's executive team through market competitive remuneration and benefits, to support the success of the Company's business and ultimately to create shareholder value.

The Corporations Act 2001 requires that a resolution be put to the vote that the Remuneration Report be adopted. The Corporations Act 2001 expressly provides that the vote is advisory only, and does not bind the Directors or the Company. The Board of the Company will take into account the discussion on this Resolution and the outcome of the vote when considering the future remuneration arrangements of the Company.

The Corporations Act 2001 provides Shareholders with the opportunity to remove the whole board (except the CEO/Managing Director) if the Remuneration Report receives a 'no' vote of 25% or more (Strike) at two consecutive annual general meetings. The Company's Remuneration Report did not receive a Strike at the 2022 AGM. If the Remuneration Report receives a Strike at this Meeting, Shareholders should be aware that if a second Strike is received at the Company's 2024 AGM, this may result in a re-election of the Board.

Resolution 1 is an ordinary resolution. The Chair intends to exercise all available proxies in favour of Resolution 1. If the Chair is appointed as your proxy and you have not specified the way the Chair is to vote on Resolution 1, by signing and returning the Proxy Form, you are considered to have provided the Chair with an express authorisation for the Chair to vote the proxy in accordance with the Chair's intention, even though the Resolution is connected directly or indirectly with the remuneration of a member of the Key Management Personnel of the Company.

Board Recommendation

The Board recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of this Resolution.

For personal use only

RESOLUTION 2 – RE-ELECT MR CRAIG ROY AS A DIRECTOR

Rule 6.1(f) of the Company's Constitution requires an election of directors to take place each year with at least one director (excluding the CEO/Managing Director) retiring from office. The Director referred to in Resolution 2 (Mr Craig Roy) is retiring in accordance with Rule 6.1(f) and, being eligible, offers himself for re-election.

Mr Craig Roy

Additionally, Mr Roy was responsible for overseeing CSIRO's science and diverse research portfolio of investments to ensure maximum benefits from an investment of approximately $1 billion each year.

He has held various director and Chair positions in several prominent Australian organisations with technology and big data specialisations including Data 61, the Australian National Commission of UNESCO and the University of Technology, Sydney Vice Chancellor's Industry Board. RESOLUTION 3 – RENEWAL OF THE PROPORTIONAL TAKEOVER PROVISIONS IN THE CONSTITUTION

Resolution 3 seeks the approval of Shareholders for the renewal of the Proportional Takeover Provisions in the Company's Constitution. A Proportional Takeover Bid is an off-market bid that is made or purports to be made under section 618(1)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001, in respect of a specified proportion of shares included in a class of shares in the Company.

Pursuant to section 648G of the Corporations Act 2001, the Company has included at Rule 14 of its Constitution, a provision whereby a Proportional Takeover Bid for Shares may only proceed after the bid has been approved by a meeting of Shareholders held in accordance with the terms set out in the Corporations Act 2001.

It is a requirement of the Corporations Act 2001 that such proportional takeover approval provisions in a company's constitution apply for a maximum period of three years, unless renewed earlier. In the case of the Company, such Proportional Takeover Approval Provisions (i.e., existing Rule 14 of the Company's Constitution) were approved by Shareholders at the 2020 AGM and will expire on 14 October 2023.

A Proportional Takeover Bid involves the bidder offering to buy only a proportion of each Shareholder's shares in the Company. This means that control of the Company may pass without Shareholders having the chance to sell all their shares to the bidder. It also means the bidder may acquire control of the Company without paying an adequate premium for gaining control. To address this possibility, a company may provide in its Constitution that, in the event of a Proportional Takeover Bid being made for shares in the company, the Directors must convene a meeting of Shareholders to vote on a resolution to approve that bid.

A meeting convened under the Proportional Takeover Approval Provisions is treated as a general meeting of the company and the majority decision of the Company's Shareholders will be binding on all individual members.

Information required by section 648G of the Corporations Act 2001Effect of Proposed Renewal of Proportional Takeover Approval Provisions

Where a Proportional Takeover Bid is made, the Directors must convene a meeting of Shareholders to vote on a resolution to approve the proportional bid before the 14th day prior to the closing of the bid period. The vote is decided on a simple majority. Each person who, as at the end of the day on which the first offer under the takeover bid was made, held bid class shares is entitled to vote. Neither the bidder nor its associates are entitled to vote on the resolution.

If a meeting is not held, section 648E of the Corporations Act 2001 deems a resolution approving the Proportional Takeover Bid to have been passed, thereby allowing the proportional bid to proceed. Further, the Directors will contravene the Corporations Act 2001 if they fail to ensure a resolution to approve the bid is voted on.

If the resolution is rejected, the registration of any transfer of shares resulting from that Proportional Takeover Bid will be prohibited and the bid will be deemed to be withdrawn. If the resolution is passed or deemed to have been passed, the transfer of shares resulting from acceptance of an offer under that bid will be permitted and the transfer of shares will be registered provided they comply with the other provisions of the Constitution.

For personal use only

Rule 14 will not apply to full takeover bids.

Reason for Proposing the Resolution

A Proportional Takeover Bid may result in control of the Company changing without Shareholders having the opportunity to dispose of all their shares. By making a partial bid, a bidder can obtain practical control of the Company by acquiring less than a majority interest. Shareholders are exposed to the risk of being left as a minority in the Company and the risk of the bidder being able to acquire control of the Company without payment of an adequate control premium.

The Proportional Takeover Provisions allow Shareholders to decide whether a Bid is acceptable in principle, and assist in ensuring that any partial bid is appropriately priced.

If Rule 14 is renewed, the Board considers that this risk will be minimised by enabling Shareholders to decide whether or not a Proportional Takeover Bid should be allowed to proceed.

Knowledge of any Acquisition Proposal

As at the date of this Notice of Meeting, the Board is not aware of any proposal by any person to acquire, or increase the extent of, a substantial interest in the Company.

Review of Proportional Takeover Approval Provisions

The Corporations Act 2001 requires the retrospective consideration of the potential advantages and disadvantages of the Proportional Takeover Approval Provisions for both Directors and Shareholders. The Proportional Takeover Approval Provisions have been in effect for the Company since 15 October 2020. Since that time, there have been no takeover bids for the Company, either proportional or otherwise. Therefore, there are no actual examples against which to review the advantages and disadvantages of the existing Proportional Takeover Approval Provisions for the Directors and Shareholders of the Company.

Potential Future Advantages and Disadvantages for Directors and Shareholders

The Board consider that the renewal of the Proportional Takeover Provisions have no potential advantages or disadvantages for the Directors. In particular, there is no restriction on their ability to make a recommendation on whether a Proportional Takeover Bid should be accepted.

The potential advantages of the Proportional Takeover provisions for Shareholders include:

- a) Providing Shareholders with the right to decide by majority vote whether an offer under a Proportional Takeover Bid should proceed;
- b) Assisting in preventing Shareholders from being locked in as a minority;
- c) Increasing the bargaining power of Shareholders which may assist in ensuring that any Proportional Takeover Bid is adequately priced; and
- d) Each individual Shareholder may better assess the likely outcome of the Proportional Takeover Bid by knowing the view of the majority of Shareholders, which may assist in deciding whether to accept or reject an offer under the takeover bid.

For personal use only

The potential disadvantages of the Proportional Takeover provisions for Shareholders include:

- a) Proportional Takeover Bids may be discouraged;
- b) Lost opportunity to sell a portion of their Shares at a premium; and
- c) The likelihood of a Proportional Takeover Bid succeeding may be reduced.

The Directors consider that it is in the best interests of Shareholders to renew these provisions in their existing form. Accordingly, a special resolution is being put to Shareholders in accordance with section 648G of the Corporations Act 2001, to renew Rule 14 of the Company's Constitution.

If approved by Shareholders at the 2023 AGM, Rule 14 will operate for three years from the date of the meeting (that is, until 12 October 2026), unless renewed earlier.

Board Recommendation

The Board recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of this resolution.

In the Notice and Explanatory Memorandum the term Key Management Personnel has the same meaning as in the accounting standards issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board and means those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the Company, or if the Company is part of a consolidated entity, of the consolidated entity, directly or indirectly, including any director (whether executive or otherwise) of the Company, or if the Company is part of a consolidated entity, of an entity within the consolidated group.
