16 February 2024

Senior Management Changes

Corporate Travel Management (CTM, ASX:CTD) today announces the following changes to senior leadership.

Global Chief Financial Officer (CFO)

CTM is pleased to announce the appointment of James Spence as Global Chief Financial Officer, commencing 27 May 2024. James brings over 13 years of experience as a CFO of large, international businesses, and has operated across Australasia, North America and Europe, in a 30-year career. James brings a breadth of financial experience including in strategy, risk management, M&A and capital markets.

This appointment is made after a 6-month recruitment process, following the departure of the previous Global Chief Financial Officer, Cale Bennett, in July 2023. James Patterson, who is currently Acting Global Chief Financial Officer, will continue to support the business, and the incoming CFO, in the Group Finance team. The CTM Board would like to thank James for his continued support and significant contribution made as Acting Global Chief Financial Officer.

Managing Director, Jamie Pherous said, “We have built an exceptionally strong Group Finance function. These changes will add further depth of experience to help the business deliver on an ambitious five-year growth strategy to be outlined further at our half year release. I would like to welcome James Spence to the team, and to thank James Patterson for his significant contribution as Acting CFO”.

Authorised for release by the Company Secretary, Shelley Sorrenson.
