HOW TO VOTE

A shareholder can vote at the AGM:

- a. in person;
- b. by proxy;
- c. by attorney; or
- d. by corporate representative (if you are a corporate shareholder).

A shareholder will be counted as being present at the AGM if the shareholder votes in any of the ways outlined above.

Attendance at the AGM

All persons attending the AGM are asked to arrive at least 30 minutes prior to the time the AGM is to commence, so that their shareholding may be checked against the share register, their power of attorney or appointment as corporate representative can be verified (as the case may be), and their attendance noted.

Voting in person

If a shareholder wishes to vote in person at the AGM, they may attend the AGM which will be held at 10:00am (AEST) on Wednesday 29th May 2024 at Bankstown Sports Club, "Georges River Room", L1, 8 Greenfield Parade (Cnr Greenfield Parade and Mona Street) Bankstown NSW 2200.

Voting by proxy

A shareholder entitled to attend and cast a vote is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote for the shareholder. The person appointed as a proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company and may be an individual or a body corporate. An appointment of proxy form accompanies this Notice of AGM.

Rules relating to proxy voting

Shareholders can direct their proxy how to vote by marking one of the boxes opposite each item of business on the proxy form attached. If the shareholder does not mark a box on the proxy form, or instruct its proxy on how to vote, the proxy may vote as they choose at the AGM. If the shareholder marks more than one box on the proxy form on an item, their vote will be invalid on that item.

A shareholder can vote a portion of their voting rights by inserting the percentage or number of securities the shareholder wishes to vote in the For, Against or Abstain box or boxes on the proxy form attached. The sum of the votes cast must not exceed the shareholder's voting entitlement or 100%.

Pursuant to section 250BB(1) of the Corporations Act, where a proxy appointment specifies the way that the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution:

- a. the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way (i.e. as directed);
- b. if the proxy has two or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution, the proxy must not vote on a show of hands;
- c. if the proxy is the chair of the meeting at which the resolution is voted on, the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote that way (i.e. as directed); and
- d. if the proxy is not the chair, the proxy need not vote on the poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way (i.e. as directed).

If the shareholder is entitled to cast two (2) or more votes, the shareholder may appoint two (2) proxies and may specify the proportion or number of the shareholder's votes each proxy may exercise. If the shareholder appoints two (2) proxies and the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the shareholder's votes each proxy may exercise, each proxy may exercise half of the votes (disregarding fractions). If the shareholder appoints two (2) proxies, neither proxy may vote on a show of hands. When appointing a second proxy, a shareholder should write both names and the percentage of votes or number of securities for each, on the proxy form attached to this Notice of Meeting.

An instrument of proxy in which the name of the appointee is not filled in is taken to be given in favour of the Chairperson of the meeting to which it relates. An appointed proxy that is not the Chairperson of the meeting may also be taken to be given in favour of the Chairperson in certain circumstances under section 250BC of the Corporations Act, namely:

- a. where the appointment of proxy specifies the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution; and
- b. a poll is demanded on such resolution but the proxy is not recorded as attending the meeting or does not vote on the resolution.

At the point of entry to the AGM, a proxy will be admitted and given a voting card upon providing written evidence of their name and address.

Lodgement of proxy forms

The lodging of a proxy form will not preclude a shareholder from attending in person and voting at the AGM if the shareholder is entitled to attend and vote. If the shareholder votes on any resolution, their appointed proxy is not entitled to vote and must not vote as that holder's proxy on the resolution. For the appointment of a proxy to be valid, the proxy form MUST be received by the Company or its Share Registry (details of which are set out in this Notice) not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the AGM. Proxy forms received after this time will be invalid.

NOTICE OF 2024 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Proxy forms submitted online or sent by fax or post in the manner set out in this Notice and on the proxy form must be received by the Company or its Share Registry not less than 48 hours before the time for the holding of the AGM.

Where the proxy form is executed under a power of attorney, the original power of attorney or an attested copy of the power of attorney or other authority under which it is signed MUST be lodged with the proxy form (unless it has already been lodged with the Company).

How the Chairperson of the meeting will vote undirected proxies

The Chairperson's voting intention is to vote undirected proxies able to be voted in favour of Resolutions 1, 2 and 3.

A shareholder can appoint the Chairperson as proxy with directions to cast that shareholder's votes contrary to the Chairperson's stated voting intention on any or all of the resolutions, or to abstain from voting on certain resolutions. Where a shareholder appoints the Chairperson as their proxy but does not direct their vote on a particular resolution, the shareholder will be directing the Chairperson to vote in accordance with the Chairperson's clearly stated voting intention.

Voting by attorney

At the point of entry to the AGM, an attorney will be admitted and given a voting card upon providing written evidence of their appointment, their name and address and the identity of their appointer.

The lodging of a power of attorney will not preclude a shareholder from attending in person and voting at the AGM if the shareholder is entitled to attend and vote. If the shareholder votes on the resolutions, their appointed attorney is not entitled to vote, and must not vote as that holder's attorney on the resolutions.

In order for the appointment of an attorney to be valid, the original power of attorney or an attested copy of the power of attorney or other authority under which it is signed MUST be lodged with the Company not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the AGM. An appointment of attorney received after this time will be invalid.

Voting by corporate representative

To vote at the AGM (other than by proxy or by attorney), a corporation that is a shareholder may appoint a person to act as its authorised corporate representative. The appointment must comply with section 250D of the Corporations Act.

At the point of entry to the AGM, an authorised corporate representative will be admitted and given a voting card upon providing written evidence of their appointment including any authority under which it is signed, their name and address and the identity of their appointer.

Lodgement of proxy forms, powers of attorney and authorities

To be effective, duly signed proxy forms, powers of attorney and authorities MUST be received at an address or by fax or email shown below at least 48 hours before the commencement of the meeting at 10:00am (AEST) on Wednesday 29th May 2024. Any forms received after that time will not be valid for the scheduled meeting.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Explanatory Statement is intended to provide shareholders of the Company with information to assess the merits of the proposed resolutions in the accompanying Notice of Annual General Meeting.

The directors recommend that shareholders read the Explanatory Statement in full before making any decision in relation to the following.

Required Majority

Each of the Resolutions proposed in this Notice of Meeting are ordinary resolutions and will be passed if, in each case, more than 50% of the votes cast by shareholders entitled to vote on the relevant Resolution are cast in favour of that Resolution (noting that Resolution 3 is advisory only – see further details below).

Annual Financial Report and Directors' and Auditor's Reports

The Annual Financial Report for the twelve-month period ended 31 December 2023 (which includes all the financial statements and notes and the Directors' and Auditor's Reports) will be laid before the meeting, in accordance with the requirements of section 317 of the Corporations Act.

There is no requirement for shareholders to vote with respect to, or to approve, these reports. However, shareholders will be given a reasonable opportunity at the AGM to raise questions on the Reports. The CY23 Auditor will be in attendance at the meeting and can answer questions on the conduct of the audit and the contents of the Auditor's Report.

Resolution 1 – Re-election of Mr Daniel Eric Gladstone, as Director

Background

Rule 7.1(f) of the Company's Constitution requires that at each annual general meeting, one third of the directors of the Company must retire from office (or if there are not three directors of the Company, or if the number of Company directors is not a multiple of three, then the number nearest one third). The managing director and directors appointed to fill casual vacancies are not to be taken into account in calculating the number of directors of the Company for the purposes of Rule 7.1(f) of the Company's Constitution.

The directors to retire at the AGM under Rule 7.1(f) of the Company Constitution must be those who have been longest in office since their last election.

ASX Listing Rule 14.4 also provides that a director of an entity must not hold office (without re-election) past the third annual general meeting following the director's appointment.

Rule 7.1(i) of the Company Constitution provides that a retiring director is eligible for re-election.

Ms. Heather Ann Scheibenstock and Mr Daniel Eric Gladstone are the longest serving directors since last being re-elected. Ms Scheibenstock and Mr Gladstone were last elected to office at the AGM held on 29 November 2022.

Rule 7.1(f) of the Company Constitution provides that as between persons who were elected as directors on the same day, those to retire must be determined by lot, unless they otherwise agree between themselves.

In accordance with Rule 7.1(f) and ASX Listing Rule 14.4, it was agreed between Ms Scheibenstock and Mr Gladstone, that Mr Gladstone would be due to retire at the end of this AGM.

In accordance with Rule 7.1 of the Company Constitution, Mr Gladstone has offered himself for re-election to the Board as a non-executive director of the Company at this AGM.

Nominee profile

In accordance with Recommendation 1.2 of the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (4th edition) (Governance Principles), the Company provides the following information in respect of Mr Gladstone and his experience:

Name: Mr Daniel Eric Gladstone

Age: 69 years

Position: Mr Gladstone began holding the position of Chief Executive Officer of the Company in 2007, and also became an Executive Director of the Company in 2010. In June 2019, Mr Gladstone ceased his role as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company and ceased his executive duties such that he continued from that time as a Non-Executive Director. Mr Gladstone became Chairperson of the Board of Directors in November 2019 and a member of the Company's Audit and Risk Committee in June 2021.

Independence: Whilst Mr Gladstone has previously been considered a non-independent director due to his prior office as an Executive Director, in July 2022 an assessment was undertaken by the Board that determined that, after 3 years of acting in a non-executive capacity, Mr Gladstone was to be appropriately considered (in line with the Governance Principles) an independent director from that time given:

- the size of his shareholding in the Company (being approximately 0.05% of the total issued share capital of the Company as at the date of this Notice);
- he no longer has any executive role with the Company; and
- he does not represent, hold an office or employment with or has been an adviser to, any particular shareholder or group of shareholders of the Company.

For personal use only

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Business experience: Mr Gladstone is a highly respected and experienced gaming executive and supporter of the gaming industry associations.

His achievements were recognised when he was inducted into the Australian Club Managers Association Hall of Fame in 2000.

Mr Gladstone has held senior positions within the gaming industry over a successful career spanning more than 45 years including Director of Konami Australia Pty Ltd, a position he held for ten (10) years and Chairman of Gaming Technologies Association for two (2) years.

Throughout his extensive career, he has been a key contributor to the development and design of gaming slot machines and games.

Other directorships: Nil.

Board recommendation

The Board recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the resolution for re-electing Mr Gladstone.

The Chairperson of the AGM intends to vote undirected proxies in favour of this resolution.

Resolution 2 – Re-election of Mr Colin John Henson, as Director

Background

Mr Henson was last elected to office at the AGM held on 25 November 2021. Therefore, in accordance with Rule 7.1(f) and ASX Listing Rule 14.4 (as further detailed in this Notice under the explanatory materials for Resolution 1), Mr Henson is due to retire at the end of this AGM.

In accordance with Rule 7.1 of the Company Constitution, Mr Henson has offered himself for re-election to the Board as a non-executive director of the Company at this AGM.

Nominee profile

The following is a summary of Mr Henson and his experience:

Name: Mr Colin Henson

Age: 76 years

Position: Mr Henson has held the position of a Non-Executive Director of the Company since 2013 and has been a member of the Company's Audit and Risk Committee since this appointment. Mr Henson also is currently the Chairperson of both the Remuneration and Nomination Committee (since 2015) and the Regulatory and Compliance Committee (since 2021).

Independence: In accordance with the Governance Principles, the board of the Company considers Mr Henson to be an independent director given:

- the size of his shareholding in the Company (being approximately 0.04% of the total issued share capital of the Company as at the date of this Notice);
- he has no executive role with the Company; and
- he does not represent, hold an office or employment with or has been an adviser to, any particular shareholder or group of shareholders of the Company.

Business experience: Mr Henson has had a lengthy career as a senior executive and as a director of private and publicly listed companies across a broad range of industries. Formerly, Mr Henson was the non-executive Chairman of Videlli Limited (formerly ERG Limited) and consultant to the Board of ASX listed company ComOps Limited, Executive Chairman of Redcape Property Fund Limited, an ASX Listed Property Trust. Mr Henson is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, Certified Practising Accountants Australia and the Governance Institute of Australia. He is also a Non Practising Member of the Law Society of New South Wales (Dip. Law).

Other directorships: Nil.

Board recommendation

The Board recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the resolution for re-electing Mr Henson.

The Chairperson of the AGM intends to vote undirected proxies in favour of this resolution.

Resolution 3 - Approval of Remuneration Report

Background

The Remuneration Report, which is included in a separate and clearly identified section of the Annual Directors' Report, sets out the Company's remuneration arrangements for directors and executive key management personnel of the Company as required by section 300A of the Corporations Act.

Section 250(R)(2) of the Corporations Act requires a resolution that the Remuneration Report be adopted and that it be put to a vote at the Company's AGM.

A reasonable opportunity for discussion of the Remuneration Report will be provided at the meeting. While Resolution 3 is to be determined as an ordinary resolution, the vote on this resolution is advisory only and does not bind the directors or the Company. However, the Board will take the outcome of the vote into consideration in future reviews of the remuneration policy for directors and executive key management personnel of the Company.

For personal use only

Voting consequences

A company is required to put to its shareholders a resolution proposing the calling of another meeting of shareholders to consider the re-election of the directors of the company (Spill Resolution) if, at two consecutive annual general meetings, at least 25% of the votes cast on a remuneration report resolution are voted against adoption of the remuneration report and at the first of those annual general meetings a Spill Resolution was not put to a vote. If required, the Spill Resolution must be put to a vote at the second of those annual general meetings.

If more than 50% of shareholders vote in favour of the Spill Resolution, the company must convene an extraordinary general meeting (Spill Meeting) within 90 days of the second annual general meeting to consider the re-election of the company's directors. All of the directors of the company who were in office when the directors' report (as included in the company's annual financial report for the most recent financial year) was approved, other than the managing director of the company, will cease to hold office immediately before the end of the Spill Meeting but may stand for re-election at the Spill Meeting.

Following the Spill Meeting those persons whose election or re-election as a director is approved by shareholders by ordinary resolution will be the directors of the company.

Previous voting results

At the Company's last annual general meeting held on 19 May 2023, the votes cast against the remuneration report considered at that annual general meeting were less than 25%. Accordingly, even if 25% or more of the votes cast at this Annual General Meeting in respect of Resolution 3 are against the adoption of the Remuneration Report, a Spill Resolution will not be held at this AGM.

Proxy voting restrictions

A voting exclusion statement is included in the main body of the Notice of Meeting. Further to this statement, the Board encourages you to, if you choose to appoint a proxy, direct your proxy how to vote on Resolution 3 by marking either "For", "Against" or "Abstain" on the proxy form for Resolution 3.

If you appoint a member of the Company's key management personnel (as defined in the Corporations Act) whose remuneration details are included in the Remuneration Report (who is not the Chairperson) or a closely related party (as defined in the Corporations Act) of that member as your proxy, and you do not direct that person on how to vote on Resolution 3, the proxy cannot exercise your vote and your vote will not be counted in relation to Resolution 3.

The Chairperson intends to vote all undirected proxies in favour of Resolution 3. If the Chairperson of the Meeting is appointed as your proxy and you have not specified the way the Chairperson is to vote on Resolution 3, by signing and returning the proxy form you are giving express authorisation for the Chairperson to vote the proxy in accordance with the Chairperson's intentions on Resolution 3 even though it is connected directly or indirectly with the remuneration of a member of the key management personnel of the Company.

Board recommendation

The Board recommends that shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 3.

As such, gaming is to be conducted honestly and competitively, free of criminal or corrupt elements. In order to maintain public confidence and trust in the gaming industry all persons, locations, practices, associations and activities related to the operation of licensed gaming are strictly regulated.

Further to this point, it is the State of Nevada's policy relative to corporate affairs, including but not limited to, corporate acquisitions, repurchases of securities and corporate recapitalizations affecting gaming licensees and publicly traded companies to assure financial stability; protect the continued integrity of gaming through matters of corporate governance; and preserve the benefit of conducting business in a corporate form by promoting an environment for the governance of corporate affairs that is consistent with the state's public policy concerning gaming.

Pursuant to Nevada law, any beneficial holder of voting or nonvoting securities in a publicly traded corporation, which is registered with the Nevada Gaming Commission (also referred to as a "Registered Corporation"), regardless of the number of shares owned, may be required to file an application, be investigated, and have his or her suitability determined by the Nevada Gaming Commission should the Commission have reason to believe that such ownership would otherwise be inconsistent with the declared gaming policies of the State of Nevada. All gaming applicants are responsible for the costs associated with an investigation conducted by the Nevada Gaming Control Board.

Similarly, any person who acquires, directly or indirectly, beneficial or record ownership of any debt security in a publicly traded corporation, which is registered with the Nevada Gaming Commission may be required to be found suitable if the Nevada Gaming Commission has reason to believe that the person's acquisition of the debt security would otherwise be inconsistent with the declared gaming policies of the State of Nevada.

The Nevada Gaming Control Act further requires an individual who acquires or holds, directly or indirectly, beneficial ownership of more than 5% of a Registered Corporation's voting securities to timely notify the Nevada Gaming Commission of the acquisition or holding of said securities.

Any individual that holds or acquires, either directly or indirectly, a beneficial ownership of more than 10% of a Registered Corporation's voting securities shall notify the Nevada Gaming Control Board and within thirty days apply to the Nevada Gaming Commission for a finding of suitability.

The Nevada Legislature defines a "proscribed activity as one which necessitates a change or amendment to a Registered Corporation's charter, bylaws, management or operation; an activity that materially influences or affects a Registered Corporation; or an activity, which the Nevada Gaming Commission deems inconsistent with holding voting securities for investment purposes. Accordingly, within two days of possession of intent to engage in a proscribed activity, and prior to doing so, a person must notify the Chair of the Board in writing and thereafter, within thirty days file an application for a finding of suitability with the Commission. Upon submission of an application, the person shall not be unduly prohibited from lawfully exercising any of his or her voting rights derived from being a shareholder of a Registered Corporation.

Similarly, any person or plan sponsor of a pension or employee benefit plan who acquires or holds voting securities of a Registered Corporation and has an intent to engage in a proscribed activity is deemed to be engaged in an activity that influences or affects the affairs of a Registered Corporation. As such, prior to engaging in any proscribed activity, said person or plan sponsor must notify the Chair of the Board in writing within two days after possession of such intent and within thirty days thereafter file an application for a finding of suitability with the Nevada Gaming Commission.

An "institutional investor," as defined in the Nevada Gaming Control Act, that owns 25% or less of a Registered Corporation's voting securities may apply to the Nevada Gaming Commission for a waiver of a finding of suitability if the institutional investor holds the voting securities for investment purposes only and the securities were not acquired pursuant to a debt restructuring. An institutional investor may own more than 25% but not more than 29% of the voting securities of a Registered Corporation only if such additional ownership results from a stock repurchase program conducted by a Registered Corporation, and upon the condition that such institutional investor does not purchase or otherwise acquire any additional voting securities of the Registered Corporation that would result in an increase in the institutional investor's ownership percentage.

Furthermore, an institutional investor subject to a finding of suitability because of its beneficial ownership of voting securities of a Registered Corporation and having not been granted a waiver, may beneficially own no more than 11% of the voting securities of a publicly traded corporation. If an institutional investor acquires additional ownership as a result of a stock repurchase program conducted by the Registered Corporation, unless otherwise notified by the Chairperson, said institutional investor is not required to apply to the Nevada Gaming Commission for a finding of suitability, but shall be subject to reporting requirements as prescribed by the Chairperson.

Any publicly traded company registered with the Nevada Gaming Commission or any registered or licensed subsidiary thereof shall immediately notify the Chairperson of any information about an institutional investor that may materially affect the institutional investor's eligibility to hold a waiver.

An institutional investor is deemed to hold voting securities for investment purposes if the voting securities were acquired and are held in the ordinary course of its business as an institutional investor and were not acquired and are not held for the purpose of causing, directly or indirectly: (i) the election of a majority of the members of the board of directors of the Registered Corporation; (ii) any change in the Registered Corporation's corporate charter, bylaws, management, policies or operations or those of any of its gaming affiliates or (iii) any other action that the Nevada Gaming Commission finds to be inconsistent with holding the Registered Corporation's voting securities for investment purposes only. Activities which are not deemed to be inconsistent with holding voting securities for investment purposes only include: (i) voting on all matters voted on by stockholders; (ii) making financial and other inquiries of management of the type normally made by securities analysts for informational purposes and not to cause a change in management, policies or operations and (iii) other activities the Nevada Gaming Commission may determine to be consistent with investment intent.

If the beneficial holder of voting securities who must be found suitable is a corporation, partnership or trust, it must submit detailed business and financial information including a list of beneficial owners. The applicant is required to pay all costs of investigation.

Additionally, the Nevada Gaming Commission has the authority to request that an individual apply for a finding of suitability if it's determined that said individual has a material relationship to, or material involvement with a Registered Corporation. Moreover, the Nevada Gaming Commission may require a finding of suitability, registration, or licensing of agents, advisors, affiliates or beneficial owners, of any stated percentage of outstanding equity securities of a Registered Corporation, that it determines exercises a significant influence upon the management or the affairs of a registered publicly traded company.

For personal use only

Any person who fails or refuses to apply for a finding of suitability or a license within the time prescribed by law, may be deemed unsuitable. The same restrictions apply to a record owner if the record owner, after a request, fails to identify the beneficial owner. Any stockholder of a Registered Corporation found unsuitable and who holds, directly or indirectly, any beneficial ownership in the voting securities beyond such period of time as the Nevada Gaming Commission may specify for filing may be subject to criminal prosecution in Nevada. Moreover, the Registered Corporation will be subject to disciplinary action if, after it receives notice that a person is unsuitable to be a stockholder or to have any other relationship with the Registered Corporation, it: (i) pays that person any dividend on its voting securities; (ii) allows that person to exercise, directly or indirectly, any voting right conferred through securities ownership; (iii) pays remuneration in any form to that person for services rendered or otherwise or (iv) fails to pursue all lawful efforts (including, if necessary, the immediate purchase of said voting securities for cash at fair market value) to require such unsuitable person to completely divest all voting securities held.

The Nevada Gaming Commission may, in its discretion, require the holder of any debt security of a Registered Corporation to file applications, be investigated and found suitable to own the debt security of a Registered Corporation if the Nevada Gaming Commission finds reason to believe that such ownership would otherwise be inconsistent with the declared policies of the State of Nevada. In the event that the Nevada Gaming Commission determines that a person is unsuitable to own such security, it may sanction the Registered Corporation, including the ability to revoke approvals if, without the prior approval of the Nevada Gaming Commission, the Registered Corporation: (i) pays an unsuitable person any dividend, interest, or other distribution; (ii) recognizes any voting right of such unsuitable person in connection with the securities; (iii) pays the unsuitable person remuneration in any form or (iv) makes any payment to the unsuitable person by way of principal, redemption, conversion, exchange, liquidation or similar transaction.

Registered Corporations are required to maintain current stock ledgers in Nevada that may be examined by the Nevada Gaming Authorities at any time. If any securities are held in trust by an agent or by a nominee, the record owner may be required to disclose the identity of the beneficial owner to the Nevada Gaming Authorities. A failure to make such disclosure may be grounds for finding the record owner unsuitable. A Registered Corporation is also required to render maximum assistance in determine the identity of beneficial owners of its securities. Gaming licensees may not make a public offering of securities without the prior approval of the Nevada Gaming Commission if the securities or proceeds are to be used to construct, acquire or finance gaming facilities in Nevada, or to retire or extend obligations incurred for such purposes. Such approval, if given, does not constitute a finding, recommendation or approval by the Nevada Gaming Commission or the Nevada Gaming Control Board as to the accuracy or adequacy of the prospectus or the investment merit of the offered securities, and any representation to the contrary is unlawful.

Any offer by a Registered Corporation to sell its common stock requires the review and prior approval of the Nevada Gaming Commission.

Changes in control of a Registered Corporation through merger, consolidation, stock or asset acquisitions, management or consulting agreements, or any act or conduct, by which anyone obtains control, may not lawfully occur without the prior approval of the Nevada Gaming Commission. Entities seeking to acquire control of a Registered Corporation must meet the strict standards established by the Nevada Gaming Control Board and the Nevada Gaming Commission prior to assuming control of a Registered Corporation. The Nevada Gaming Commission may require persons who intend to become controlling stockholders, officers or directors, as well as other persons who expect to have a material relationship or involvement with the acquired company to apply for a finding of suitability.

The Nevada Legislature has declared that some corporate acquisitions opposed by management, repurchases of voting securities and corporate defense tactics affecting Nevada corporate gaming licensees, and Registered Corporations that are affiliated with those operations, may be injurious to the stability and productivity of corporate gaming in Nevada. Accordingly, the Nevada Gaming Commission has established a regulatory scheme, which is intended to minimize the potential adverse effects of these types of business practices upon Nevada's gaming industry and to further Nevada's policy to: (i) assure the financial stability of corporate gaming licensees and their affiliates; (ii) preserve the beneficial aspects of conducting business in the corporate form; and (iii) promote a neutral environment for the orderly governance of corporate affairs. Approvals are, in certain circumstances, required from the Nevada Gaming Commission before the Registered Corporation can make exceptional repurchases of voting securities above market price and before a corporate acquisition opposed by management can be consummated. The Nevada Gaming Control Act also requires prior approval of a plan of recapitalization proposed by the Registered Corporation's board of directors in response to a tender offer made directly to the Registered Corporation's stockholders for the purpose of acquiring control of the Registered Corporation.

License fees and taxes, which are computed in various ways depending on the type of gaming activity involved, must be paid to the State of Nevada and to the counties and cities in which gaming operations are conducted. These fees and taxes, depending upon their nature, are payable monthly, quarterly or annually and are based upon either a percentage of the gross revenues received, or the number of gaming devices operated. Annual fees are also payable to the State of Nevada for renewal of licenses as an operator of a slot machine route, manufacturer and/or distributor.

Any person who is licensed, required to be licensed, registered, required to be registered, or who is under common control with any such persons (collectively, "Licensees") and who proposes to become involved in a gaming venture outside of Nevada, is required to deposit with the Nevada Gaming Control Board, and thereafter maintain, a revolving fund of no less than $50,000 in order to pay for the investigation of his or her participation in gaming external to Nevada. The revolving fund is subject to increase or decrease at the discretion of the Nevada Gaming Commission. Licensees shall comply with certain reporting requirements imposed by the Nevada Gaming Control Act and could be subject to disciplinary action by the Nevada Gaming Commission for knowingly violating any law of the foreign jurisdiction pertaining to the non-Nevada gaming operations; failing to conduct the foreign gaming operations in accordance with the standards of honesty and integrity required of Nevada gaming licensees; engaging in activities or associations that are harmful to the State of Nevada or its ability to collect gaming taxes and fees; or employing, contracting or associating with a person in the non-Nevada operations who has been denied a license or found to be unsuitable in Nevada.
