PEXA Group Response to ARNECC Ministerial Forum: National eConveyancing Statement

PEXA Group (“PEXA or “the Group”) acknowledges the statement released today by the Australian Registrars National Electronic Conveyancing Council (ARNECC).

ARNECC advised industry that the interoperability program has been paused, and they are in the process of standing down their project team.

We continue to participate constructively with our regulators and industry participants to support and evolve an ecosystem that operates in the best interests of Australian home and property owners.
