

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

ARAFURA LAUNCHES A$20 MILLION FULLY UNDERWRITTEN PLACEMENT AND A$7 MILLION SPP

24/07/2024

- Fully underwritten two-tranche Placement to raise A$20 million from sophisticated and institutional investors
- Share Purchase Plan targeting to raise up to an additional A$7 million (with the ability to accept oversubscriptions up to a further A$3 million)
- Substantial progress has been made on the financing of the Nolans Project, with credit approvals for the debt led funding strategy completed on 23 July 2024
- The Capital Raising is expected to support advancement of the Company's funding initiatives and provides a sufficient cash runway through to mid-2025 to allow the Company to focus on finalising its strategic equity funding and offtake initiatives required for FID
- Funds raised will also be utilised for activities necessary to support critical path activities, compliance and progressing improvement ideas that reduce capital, schedule and risk (and for general working capital purposes)
- Nolans is shovel ready and the Company will commence construction activities immediately upon reaching FID

Arafura Rare Earths Limited (ASX: ARU) ("Arafura" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that it has today commenced a capital raising process ("Capital Raising") targeting to raise A$20 – A$27 million to continue advancing towards development of the Nolans Project.

The Capital Raising will comprise a fully underwritten placement (across two tranches) of new fully paid ordinary shares ("New Shares") to sophisticated and institutional investors to raise A$20 million (before costs) ("Placement"), along with an offer to eligible existing Arafura shareholders to participate in a share purchase plan to raise an additional A$7 million (with the ability to accept oversubscriptions of up to a further A$3 million) ("SPP"). The SPP is not underwritten.

Commenting on the raising, Arafura Managing Director Darryl Cuzzubbo said: "The two-tranche placement demonstrates the strong support for Arafura and the Nolans project underpinned by the updated robust project economics that were released earlier this week. Coupled with the SPP, this capital raising will provide us with the additional financial runway to work towards securing the equity capital required to fully fund the Nolans Project."

Proceeds from the Placement are intended to be used for activities in relation to the Nolans Project as set out in the table below (noting that once FID is achieved, funding shown in the table may be re-allocated towards Nolans' Project execution). The Capital Raising, coupled with a significant reduction in the project spend rate, provides the Company with a cash runway to allow the Company to focus on finalising its strategic equity funding and offtake initiatives required for FID. The Company remains focused on the completion of the equity component of the funding requirements for Nolans (and offtake activities) by the end of 2024.

Placement

The Placement is for the issue of New Shares to sophisticated and institutional investors to raise A$20 million (before costs) at an issue price of A$0.16 per New Share (“Offer Price”) across two tranches as follows:

Description	Number of New Shares	Funds to be raised (A$)
Tranche 1	88,732,000	$14,197,120.00
Tranche 2	36,268,000	$5,802,880.00
Total	125,000,000	$20,000,000.00

The Offer Price represents a 15.8% discount to the last closing price of shares on 23 July 2024 of A$0.19.

Tranche 1 of the Placement will utilise the Company’s existing placement capacity under ASX Listing Rule 7.1 (and the issue is not subject to shareholder approval).

Tranche 2 of the Placement is subject to shareholder approval.

The Placement is fully underwritten. A summary of the underwriting arrangement in relation to the Placement is contained at Appendix C.

Share Purchase Plan

In addition to the Placement, the Company is pleased to offer all eligible existing shareholders on the Company’s share register at 7.00pm (AEST) on Tuesday, 23 July 2024 with a registered address in Australia or New Zealand the opportunity to apply for New Shares in the Company by participating in the SPP.

The Company is targeting to raise A$7 million (before costs) under the SPP (with the ability to accept oversubscriptions of up to A$3 million).

ARAFURA LAUNCHES A$20 MILLION FULLY UNDERWRITTEN PLACEMENT AND A$7 MILLION SPP

Applications for New Shares under the SPP will be capped at a maximum of A$30,000 per eligible shareholder, across all their holdings.

The offer price under the SPP is A$0.16 per New Share, which is the same as the Offer Price for the Placement. The SPP will provide eligible shareholders with the opportunity to increase their holding without paying brokerage or transaction costs.

The Company notes that it completed a share purchase plan on 25 January 2024 in reliance on ASX Listing Rule 7.2 (Exception 5) and ASIC Corporations (Share and Interest Purchase Plans) Instrument 2019/547 (“ASIC Instrument”), and now wishes to offer eligible shareholders the ability to acquire up to a further A$30,000 worth of New Shares under the SPP. Accordingly, given the Company will be unable to satisfy the conditions of the ASIC Instrument for the SPP (or rely on ASX Listing Rule 7.2 (Exception 5)), the offer and issue of the New Shares under the SPP will be:

- made under a prospectus that will be prepared and lodged with ASIC (and released to ASX) in due course (“Prospectus”); and
- subject to shareholder approval for the purposes of ASX Listing Rule 7.1.

The Company will despatch a notice shortly to convene an extraordinary general meeting to be held on (or about) 4 September 2024 (“EGM”). At the EGM, resolutions will be put to shareholders to approve the issue of New Shares under Tranche 2 of the Placement and under the SPP.

Directors (and their associates and any other person referred to in ASX Listing Rule 10.11) who are eligible shareholders will only be permitted to participate in the SPP (on the same terms as all other eligible shareholders) subject to shareholder approval. To the extent any such parties wish to participate in the SPP, the Company will seek the relevant approval at the EGM.

The terms and conditions of the SPP will be set out in the Prospectus. Participation in the SPP is optional and the Company reserves the right to scale back any applications under the SPP or to raise more or less than A$7 million in its absolute discretion.

If the SPP raises less than A$7 million (before costs), the directors reserve the right to place any SPP shortfall shares at their discretion at the Offer Price, subject to shareholder approval being obtained (at the EGM) and to compliance with the ASX Listing Rules and Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (“Corporations Act”). Any SPP shortfall offer will be a separate offer made pursuant to the Prospectus. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Company accepts any oversubscriptions under the SPP, there will be no shortfall and, accordingly, no SPP shortfall offer. Directors (and their associates and any other person referred to in ASX Listing Rule 10.11) may only participate in any SPP shortfall offer if shareholder approval is obtained in due course.

In relation to the EGM (and the shareholder approval required for the SPP), the Company has sought and obtained a waiver from ASX Listing Rule 7.3.9 to permit the Company to include a resolution in the notice of meeting to approve the issue of New Shares under the SPP to not include a voting exclusion statement that excludes votes of persons who may participate in the SPP, on the following conditions:

- Condition 1: That, if the SPP is underwritten, the Company excludes any votes cast in favour of that resolution by any proposed underwriter or sub-underwriter of the SPP; and
- Condition 2: The notice states that any shareholders casting votes on the resolution relating to the SPP will be excluded from participating in the SPP shortfall.

In relation to condition 1, the Company confirms that (as noted above) the SPP is not underwritten.

All New Shares to be issued under the Placement and SPP will rank equally with the Company’s existing quoted shares on issue.

Appendix A: Risk factors

You should be aware that being issued New Shares involves various risks. This section discusses some of the key risks associated with an investment in New Shares. A number of risks and uncertainties, which are both specific and of a more general nature, may adversely affect the operating and financial performance or position of Arafura (and its subsidiaries) (Group), which in turn may affect the value of New Shares and the value of an investment in Arafura.

The risks and uncertainties described below are not an exhaustive list of the risks facing the Group or associated with an investment in Arafura. Additional risks and uncertainties may also become important factors that adversely affect the Group's operating and financial performance or position.

This document is not financial product advice and has been prepared without taking into account your investment objectives or personal circumstances. Before investing in New Shares, you should consider whether an investment in New Shares is suitable for you. Potential investors should consider publicly available information on Arafura (such as that available on the websites of Arafura and ASX), carefully consider their personal circumstances and consult their stockbroker, solicitor, accountant or other professional adviser before making an investment decision.

1. Company specific risks

a) Funding risk

The Nolans Project is a large and complex project with total capital expenditure currently estimated at US$1.2bn (refer to the Company's ASX announcement "Arafura achieves major debt funding milestone presentation" dated 23 July 2024). The business of the Group, and the ability of the Group to procure the finance required to develop the Nolans Project, relies on access to debt and equity funding.

As rare earths (including Neodymium-Praseodymium (NdPr)) are not traded on any commodity exchange, traditional debt and equity market sources may not be available which may make it difficult for financiers and investors to assess and understand market risk. Therefore, the Group has sought to fund a significant portion of the Nolans Project's capital expenditure through Export Credit Agencies. There can be no assurance that additional debt, equity or other forms of funding (including by way of government grants) will be available to the Group (over any timeframe) on favourable terms or at all.

The Company has conditional approval for US$775m in senior debt facilities, an additional US$80m for a cost overrun facility (COF) and a further US$200m in the form of a standby liquidity facility (SLF). The COF and SLF are to be used to manage any increases in capital expenditure and operating costs incurred during ramp up. Customary terms of the debt financing require the Company to raise a significant portion of the capital cost required to fund the Nolans Project from the equity market before debt drawdowns will be available. No assurance can be given that the required equity component of the Nolans Project financing will be raised by the Company in full or at all. Failure to obtain sufficient funds from the equity market or failure to achieve other conditions precedent customary for secured project financing arrangements of this nature, such as final loan documentation and satisfaction of other conditions to drawdown (including providing an updated financial model based off, amongst other things, independent commodity price forecasts which demonstrate compliance with financial ratios and debt sizing criteria, entry into material project contracts with associated tripartite agreements, project authorisations, representations, undertakings and offtake policy compliance) may preclude the Company from being able to drawdown on the financing facilities it has secured. Any additional equity financing may dilute existing shareholdings.

Failure to obtain debt, equity and/or other forms of financing may cause the Group to postpone any development plans, forfeit rights to some or all of its projects or reduce its operating structures, including staff and overhead levels, which may delay or suspend the Group's business strategy and could have a material adverse effect on the Group's activities or require the Group to sell down an interest in its projects or assets. This may adversely impact the Group's financial condition and the value of the Company's shares, and could ultimately result in the Group being unable to develop the Nolan's Project. In addition, any delays in obtaining debt, equity and/or other forms of financing, or any delays in receiving (or the non-receipt of) anticipated government grants, may require the Company to decrease its planned expenditure on certain project related activities while such funding is being secured. This may lead to scheduling disruptions, timetable overruns and an overall delay in the execution of the Nolans Project.

b) Communicable disease outbreaks

The outbreak of communicable diseases around the world (such as COVID-19) may lead to interruptions in operations, exploration, development and production activities, inability to source supplies or consumables and higher volatility in the global capital markets and price of rare earth elements or demand for the product of the Group, which may materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, such outbreaks may result in restrictions on travel and public transport and prolonged closures of facilities or other workplaces which may have a material adverse effect on the Group and the global economy more generally. Any material change in the Group's operating conditions, the financial markets or the economy as a result of these events or developments may materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

c) Exploration, production and project development

The future profitability of the Group is directly related to the results of exploration, development and production activities as well as costs and prices. Exploration, project development and production involves significant risk.

Exploration is a speculative endeavour with an associated risk of discovering or finding NdPr and other products in economic quantities and/or grades, and risks associated with development of a project to exploit any such discovery. No assurances can be given that funds spent on exploration and development will result in discoveries or projects that will be commercially viable. During each stage of a project's development there is a risk that forecast capital or operating expenditure estimates may increase, rendering a discovery uneconomic.

Development and production of NdPr and other mining projects may be exposed to low side reserve outcomes, cost and timetable overruns, production decreases or stoppages, which may be the result of commissioning, facility shutdowns, mechanical or technical failure, scheduling disruptions (which may result from delays to funding or decreased spend while funding is secured), technical risks and other unforeseen events. Few rare earth's processing plants have been constructed and commissioned outside of the People's Republic of China and, as a result, there may be increased execution risk for the Nolans Project. A significant poor development outcome or failure to maintain production could result in the Group lowering reserve and production forecasts, loss of revenue, increased working capital requirements, and additional operating costs to restore production.

In some instances, a loss of production may incur significant capital expenditure, which could require the Group to seek additional funding. The Group may fail to meet product quality requirements and material specifications required by buyers.

d) Volatility of the price of rare earth elements

NdPr and other rare earth products are not exchange traded commodities. The Group will require contracts for sale of these mineral commodities. There is no guarantee the Group will secure contracts on terms favourable to the Group or at all.

NdPr and other rare earth product prices will depend on available markets at acceptable prices and distribution and other costs. Pricing of NdPr can also be impacted by government intervention in NdPr markets, such as through direct or indirect support of producers and exporters of NdPr, stockpiling of NdPr, and trade policies, barriers and sanctions. Historically (and at present), the supply of NdPr has been dominated by producers in the People's Republic of China. Policy changes, actions or events that affect that supply may have a significant effect on NdPr prices.

Additionally, technological developments may result in substitution risk and decrease the demand for (and therefore the price of) NdPr and other rare earth products. Demand for NdPr and other rare earth products may also be impacted by demand for downstream products incorporating rare earths, including (but not limited to) hybrid and electric vehicles, wind turbines, robotics, permanent magnets, medical equipment, military equipment and other high-growth advanced motion technologies as well as demand in the general automotive and electronic industries.

ARAFURA LAUNCHES A$20 MILLION FULLY UNDERWRITTEN PLACEMENT AND A$7 MILLION SPP

Any substantial variation in the price of NdPr and other rare earth products or an increase in the distribution costs could have a material impact on the Group.

e) Metallurgy and hydrometallurgy

Metallurgical testwork is used to develop the mineral processing and hydrometallurgical processes required to convert ore into final products. Scale up, technology and materials handling risks remain as the Group moves from development to construction, commissioning and production. Product recoveries are dependent upon the mineral processing and hydrometallurgical processes, and by their nature contain elements of significant risk such as:

- developing and identifying mineral processing and hydrometallurgical processes through testwork to produce a saleable product;
- scale-up and design of novel processes into a commercial flowsheet based on laboratory and pilot scale testwork results;
- the representative nature of the samples used for the metallurgical testwork of the ore that is mined for processing over the life of mine;
- developing an economic process route to produce a saleable product; and
- changes in mineralogy in the ore deposit result in inconsistent product recovery, adversely affecting the economic viability of the Nolans Project.

f) Capital cost risk

While the Group has completed Front End Engineering and Design (FEED) activities and is continuing detailed design and tendering activities for procurement and construction contracts (including infrastructure contracts) as part of advancing the design and cost of the Nolans Project, until such time a design definition is complete and construction contracts are signed, there is a risk that the capital expenditure for the Nolans Project increases above the previous disclosed capital requirements (refer to ASX announcements “Nolans Project Update” dated 11 November 2022, “Quarterly Activities Report and Appendix 5B” dated 31 October 2023 and “Arafura achieves major debt funding milestone presentation” dated 23 July 2024) due to various macro-economic factors that have directly or indirectly impacted the construction industry. In addition, even following the completion of design and the execution of construction contracts, there is a risk of a cost overrun on the Nolans Project given the inflationary environment which may impact on labour costs, supply costs, transport costs and other costs associated with the construction of the Nolans Project. The Group has contracted KBR under a PCM (procure, construct, manage) contract and the project is being delivered using an Integrated Project Management Team (IPMT) model. The IPMT will procure most of the equipment packages and engage the constructors for each part of the project. The contractor strategy for each major construction package has already been agreed. There is a cost and schedule risk to a successful project outcome if the IPMT does not effectively manage all aspects of the project delivery. The Company continues to monitor capital cost trends (see current trending analysis set out in the Company’s ASX Presentation “Arafura achieves major debt funding milestone” dated 23 July 2024).

g) Operating risks

Industry operating risks include, but are not limited to, fires, explosions, environmental hazards, technical failures, unusual or unexpected geological conditions, adverse weather conditions and other accidents. The occurrence of any of these risks could result in substantial losses to the Group due to: injury or loss of life; damage to or destruction of property, natural resources or equipment; pollution or other environmental damage; clean-up responsibilities; regulatory investigation and penalties; or suspension of operations. Damages occurring to third parties as a result of such risks may also give rise to claims against the Group.

The occurrence of any of these circumstances could result in the Group not realising its operational or development plans or in such plans costing more than expected or taking longer to realise than expected. Any of these outcomes could have an adverse effect on the Group’s financial and operational performance.

ARAFURA LAUNCHES A$20 MILLION FULLY UNDERWRITTEN PLACEMENT AND A$7 MILLION SPP

h) Reliance on key personnel and advisors

The ability of the Group to achieve its objectives depends on the engagement of key employees, directors and external contractors that provide management and technical expertise.

If the Group cannot secure external technical expertise (for example to carry out development activities) or if the services of the present management or technical team cease to be available to the Group, this may affect the Group's ability to achieve its objectives either fully or within the timeframes and the budget that it has forecast. Additionally, industrial disruptions, work stoppages and accidents in the course of operations may adversely affect the Group's performance.

i) Reliance on third party infrastructure

The Group will rely on third party transportation and other infrastructure, primarily in order to deliver its products to the market and incoming reagents and supplies to the Nolans Project site. Any delay or failure to access or properly maintain operating infrastructure or shared facilities may have a material adverse effect on the Group.

j) Reserves and resource estimates

Mineral reserve and resource estimates are expressions of judgement based on knowledge, experience and industry practice. Estimates may change or become uncertain when new information becomes available on the tenements through additional exploration, investigations, research, testing or engineering over the life of a project. This applies equally to the Group's production targets in relation to the Nolans Project and any forecast financial information derived from a production target.

In addition, reserve and contingent resource estimates (and production targets and forecast financial information derived from a production target) are necessarily imprecise and depend to some extent on interpretations, which may prove inaccurate. The actual reserves or contingent resources may differ from those estimated which may result in the Group altering its plans which could have either a positive or negative effect on its operations.

Changes in reserve or resource estimates could also impact the Group's ability to maintain its borrowing capacity with lenders.

k) Native Title

The Native Title Act 1993 (Cth), Northern Territory Native Title legislation, Aboriginal land rights and Aboriginal heritage legislation may affect the Group's ability to gain access to prospective exploration areas or obtain any additional mineral leases required. The Group has entered into a Native Title Agreement with the Nolans Project's native title holders and the Central Land Council under which the native title holders provide their consent to the grant of the primary mineral lease, ancillary mineral leases and related access authorities for the Nolans Project (refer to ASX Announcement "Native Title Agreement Executed for Nolans Project" dated 26 June 2020). On 22 July 2020, the Company announced that the mineral leases for the Nolans Project had been granted by the Northern Territory Government and, on 9 February 2021, the Company announced that the mineral leases for areas supporting the Nolans Project (which will host the Nolans borefield) had been granted by the Northern Territory Government (refer to ASX Announcements "Nolans Mineral Leases granted by NT Government" dated 22 July 2020 and "Mineral Leases granted by NT Government secures Borefield" dated 9 February 2021). The Group will need to comply with the Native Title Agreement to avoid any potentially adverse consequences.

The Group is currently in discussions with the Central Land Council (as representatives of the native title holders) for an amendment agreement to the Native Title Agreement to cover the mineral leases and extractive mineral permits to cover the explosives magazine, proposed stage 1 solar farm, borrow pits and minor changes to various access authorities. There is a risk that an agreement cannot be reached and in this instance the Group would need to re-arrange aspects of the Nolans Project to allow delivery within the existing Native Title Agreement.

The Group may, from time to time, need to negotiate with native title claimants for access rights to certain tenements, or for certain activities or granting of additional leases, outside those covered by the Native Title Agreement. There may be significant delays and costs associated with these negotiations and to reach agreement acceptable to all relevant parties. At this stage, it is not possible to quantify the potential impact that these developments may have on the operations of the Group.

l) Environmental

The Group's exploration, development and production activities are subject to legislation regarding environmental matters.

The legal framework governing this area is complex and constantly developing. There is a risk that the environmental regulations may become more onerous, making the Group's operations more expensive and/or subject to potential delays. The Group may become subject to liability for pollution or other hazards against which it is not insured or cannot insure, including those in respect of past activities for which it was not responsible.

The Group's operations are subject to the Northern Territory and Commonwealth laws and regulations regarding the environment, including hazards and discharge of hazardous waste and materials. The mining and processing of Normally Occurring Radioactive Materials (NORM) and the disposal of radioactive waste is subject to additional laws and regulations regarding environmental matters. The cost of compliance with these laws and regulations may impact the cost of exploration, development, construction, operation of the production facilities and mine closure costs and may result in these costs exceeding what has been allowed for in the estimates used to develop forward looking statements around the economic performance of the Nolans Project.

m) Title

Securing and maintaining tenure over mining tenements is critical to the future development of the Group's projects. All mining tenements which the Group may acquire either by application, sale and purchase or farm-in are regulated by the applicable state or territory mining legislation.

There is no guarantee that future applications for ungranted tenements will be granted as applied for (although the Group has no reason to believe that any tenements required for the Nolans Project or identified as being required in the future will not be granted in due course). Various conditions may also be imposed as a condition of grant. In addition, the relevant minister may need to consent to any transfer of a tenement to the Group.

Renewal of titles is made by way of application to the relevant department. There is no guarantee that a renewal will be automatically granted other than in accordance with the applicable state or territory mining legislation. In addition, the relevant department may impose conditions on any renewal, including relinquishment of ground.

Under the Mineral Titles Act 2010 (NT) (MT Act), a 'person who has an interest in land' (as defined in the MT Act) is entitled to compensation from the holder of a mineral title for:

- damage to the land, and any improvements on the land, caused by activities conducted under the title; and
- any loss suffered as a result of that damage.

The compensation to which a person is entitled depends upon the type of land in question (for example, whether it is freehold land or a pastoral lease) and the nature of the activities that caused the damage to the land (for example, whether they were exploration activities or mining activities). There is no requirement under the MT Act that landholder agreements need to be in place between the Group and all or any of the persons who have interests in the land the subject of the mineral titles under the MT Act held by the Group in respect of the Nolans Project mine and associated infrastructure prior to the commencement of development of, or operations for, the Nolans Project.

The Group has a right of access to its mineral titles and a right to occupy and uses its mineral titles in accordance with their terms, the MT Act and the Mining Management Act 2001 (NT). Should the Group not be able to enter into a landholder agreement with a person who has an interest in any relevant land, that person will be entitled to compensation as described above and will be able to apply to the Northern Territory Civil and Administrative Tribunal for a decision in respect of the compensation payable to the person (and associated matters) in the event that the parties are unable to reach agreement on the compensation payable by the Group to the person. There is a risk that the compensation payable to the persons who have interests in the relevant land may exceed the estimates included in the operating cost estimates used to develop forward looking statements around the Nolans Project's economic performance.

n) Legislative changes, government policy and approvals

The Group requires government regulatory approvals for its operations. Changes in government, monetary policies, taxation and other laws in Australia or internationally may impact the Group's operations.

ARAFURA LAUNCHES A$20 MILLION FULLY UNDERWRITTEN PLACEMENT AND A$7 MILLION SPP

The impact of actions by state, territory and federal governments may affect the Group's activities including such matters as access to lands and infrastructure, compliance with environmental regulations, production and exploration activities. This may from time to time affect timing and scope of work to be undertaken. No guarantee can be given that all necessary permits, authorisations, agreements or licences will be provided to the Group by government bodies, or if they are, that they will be renewed or not revoked if already granted.

The Group has received environmental approval from the Australian Government and the Northern Territory Environment Protection Authority under the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 (Cth).

The Group has received approval from the Northern Territory Government for its Mining Management Plan, which provides its Mining Authorisation for the Nolans Project (refer to ASX Announcement "Nolans receives Mining Authorisation from NT Government" dated 15 November 2022). There is a risk that the Group may not be in a position to comply with all conditions attached to the approval. As the Mining Management Plan is required to be updated for re-approval at regular intervals or when there is a review of past activities or changes to the proposed activities, there is also a risk that the authority to carry out mining activity may not be renewed or that additional conditions may be placed on such an approval which the Group is not in a position to comply with.

Similarly, the Group's Groundwater Extraction Licence relating to the water supply for the Nolans Project was approved in March 2023 for a period of 10 years after which extension of the approval is required. There is a risk that the Group may not be in a position to comply with all conditions attached to the approval, that an extension to the approval may not be granted, or that additional conditions will be attached to the extension of the approval which the Group may not be in a position to comply with.

o) Occupational health and safety

Exploration and production activities may expose the Group's staff and contractors to potentially dangerous working environments. Occupational health and safety legislation and regulations differ in each jurisdiction. If any of the Group's employees or contractors suffers injury or death, compensation payments or fines may be payable and such circumstances could result in the loss of a licence or permit required to carry on the business. Such an incident may also have an adverse effect on the Group's business (including financial position) and reputation.

p) Third party risk

The Group will rely significantly on strategic relationships with other entities and on a good relationship with regulatory and government departments and other interest holders. The Group will also rely on third parties to provide essential contracting services. There can be no assurance that its existing relationships will be maintained, or that new ones will be successfully formed. The Group could be adversely affected by changes to such relationships or difficulties in forming new ones.

q) Insurance

Insurance of all risks associated with mineral exploration and production is not always available and, where available, the cost can be high. The Group maintains insurance within a coverage range that it considers to be consistent with industry practice and appropriate for its needs and will update this insurance as required as Group activities evolve through the development and operation of the Nolans Project. The occurrence of an event that is uninsurable, not covered, or only partially covered by insurance could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business and financial position.

r) Litigation risks

The Company is exposed to possible litigation risks including native title claims, tenure disputes, environmental claims, occupational health and safety claims and employment claims. Further, the Company may be involved in disputes with other parties in the future which may result in litigation. Any such claim or dispute if proven, may impact adversely on the Company's operations, financial performance and financial position. The Company is not currently engaged in any litigation.

s) Climate change risk

Climate change is a risk the Group has considered, particularly related to its operations in the mining industry. The climate change risks particularly attributable to the Group include:

ARAFURA LAUNCHES A$20 MILLION FULLY UNDERWRITTEN PLACEMENT AND A$7 MILLION SPP

- the emergence of new or expanded regulations associated with transitioning to a lower-carbon economy and market changes related to climate change mitigation. The Group may be impacted by changes to local or international compliance regulations related to climate change mitigation efforts, or by specific taxation or penalties for carbon emissions or environmental damage. These examples sit amongst an array of possible restraints on industry that may further impact the Group and its profitability. While the Group will endeavour to manage these risks and limit any consequential impacts, there can be no guarantee that the Group will not be impacted by these occurrences; and
- climate change may cause certain physical and environmental risks that cannot be predicted by the Group, including events such as increased severity of weather patterns and incidence of extreme weather events and longer-term physical risks such as shifting climate patterns.

All risks associated with climate change may significantly change the industry in which the Group operates.

t) Financial risks

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks, including:

- Market risk: The risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices, interest rate risk, price risk, credit risk and liquidity risk (maintaining sufficient cash and the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities). The Group's future activities will be subject to volatility and fluctuations in those particular areas.
- Foreign exchange/currency risk: The Group operates internationally and is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from currency exposures with respect to changes in foreign exchange rates. The Group's future commercial transactions include product sales, capital expenditure, purchase of foreign sourced inputs and debt facilities. Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities denominated in a currency that is not the entity's functional currency.
- Interest rate and credit risk: This relates to the risk that interest rates applicable to the Group may fluctuate and have an impact on the value of the Group's assets and liabilities.
- Liquidity risk: This relates to the ability of the Group to maintain sufficient cash and the availability of funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to support the Group's operations.

u) Shareholder approval risks regarding Tranche 2 of the Placement, the SPP and SPP shortfall offer

The issue of New Shares under Tranche 2 of the Placement, the SPP and SPP shortfall offer is subject to the Company obtaining shareholder approval at the EGM.

There is no certainty that shareholders will approve the issue of New Shares under those offers. In the event shareholder approval is not obtained, this could be expected to have an adverse impact on the Company's ability to raise the full amount of proceeds contemplated by the Capital Raising, and therefore may impact the ability of the Group to realise some or all of the intended purposes to which the proceeds of the Capital Raising would be put towards, which could in turn have a materially adverse effect on the Company's financial and operational conditions.

Further details regarding the shareholder approval being sought at the EGM, including the consequences if the each relevant resolution is not passed, will be set out in the notice of meeting which will be prepared and dispatched by the Company and released on ASX (prior to the EGM).

Further, even if shareholders approve the issue of New Shares under the SPP and SPP shortfall offer, the SPP is not underwritten and there is therefore no guarantee that the Company will raise the targeted amount under the SPP (or if there is a shortfall, be able to place all of the SPP shortfall shares), which may impact the ability of the Group to realise some or all of the intended purposes to which the proceeds of the SPP would be put towards, which could in turn have a materially adverse effect on the Group's financial condition and operations.

ARAFURA LAUNCHES A$20 MILLION FULLY UNDERWRITTEN PLACEMENT AND A$7 MILLION SPP

2. General risks

a) Potential for dilution

A shareholder's percentage holding in the Company will be diluted by not participating in the Capital Raising.

It is not possible to predict what the value of the Company or its shares will be following the completion of the Capital Raising and the Directors do not make any representation as to such matters.

The historical trading price of the shares on ASX prior to the Capital Raising is not a reliable indicator as to the potential trading price of shares after completion of the Capital Raising.

b) General market and economic factors

The operating and financial performance of the Group is influenced by a number of general economic and business conditions.

Generally applicable factors which may affect the operating and financial performance of the Group include:

- general movements in Australian and international stock markets;
- investor sentiment;
- Australian and international economic conditions and outlook;
- commodity prices;
- changes in interest rates and the rate of inflation;
- changes in government legislation and policies, including taxation laws and foreign investment legislation;
- announcement of new technologies; and
- geo-political instability, including international hostilities and acts of terrorism.

Further, the effect of these conditions on the Group's ability to obtain new debt financing, and the terms on which any such financing can be obtained, is uncertain. If these conditions result in the Group being unable to obtain new debt financing, or to do so on reasonable terms, this may have an adverse impact on its financial position, financial performance and/or share price. The Group's operational and financial performance and position may be adversely affected by a worsening of international economic and market conditions and related factors. It is also possible that new risks might emerge as a result of global markets experiencing extreme stress, or existing risks may manifest themselves in ways that are not currently foreseeable.

c) Dividends

Any future determination as to the payment of dividends by the Company will be at the discretion of the Directors and will depend on the financial condition of the Company, future capital requirements and general business and other factors considered relevant by the Directors. No assurance in relation to the payment of dividends or franking credits attaching to dividends can be given by the Company.

d) Taxation

The disposal of New Shares will have tax consequences, which will differ depending on the individual financial affairs of each investor. All investors are urged to obtain independent financial advice about the consequences of disposing of New Shares from both a taxation viewpoint and generally. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company, its officers and each of their respective advisors accept no liability and responsibility with respect to the taxation consequences of acquiring or disposing of New Shares under this equity raising.

e) Competition

The Company will compete with other companies, including major mining companies in Australia and internationally. Some of these companies will have greater financial and other resources than the Group and, as a result, may be in a better position to compete for future business opportunities. There can be no assurance that the Group can compete effectively with these companies.

ARAFURA LAUNCHES A$20 MILLION FULLY UNDERWRITTEN PLACEMENT AND A$7 MILLION SPP

f) Force majeure

The Group's projects now or in the future may be adversely affected by risks outside the control of the Group, including fires, labour unrest, civil disorder, war, subversive activities or sabotage, floods, pandemics, explosions or other catastrophes, epidemics or quarantine restrictions.

g) Russia-Ukraine and Israel-Palestine conflict

The ongoing Russia-Ukraine and Israel-Palestine conflicts have had and will continue to have a significant impact on global economic markets. Although the Group considers the current impact of the conflicts on the Group to be limited, given that the conflicts are ongoing and volatile in nature, the future effect of the conflicts on the Group is uncertain. The conflicts may have an adverse effect on the Company's share price or operations which will likely be out of the Group's control.

h) Data and information technology

The Group's computer systems are subject to the risks of unauthorised access, computer hackers, computer viruses, malicious code, organised cyber-attacks and other security problems and system disruptions, including possible unauthorised access to proprietary or classified information. Any of these events could damage the Group's reputation and have a material adverse effect on its business, reputation, results of operations and financial condition. There is also a risk that the Group's systems for capturing data and intellectual property for project development are ultimately not effective.

3. Speculative investment

The above list of risk factors ought not to be taken as an exhaustive list of the risks faced by the Group or by investors in the Company. The above factors, and others not specifically referred to above, may in the future materially affect the financial performance of the Group and the value of the Company's securities. An investment in the Company is speculative and investors should consult their professional adviser before applying for or disposing of securities in the Company.

Furthermore, any resale of the New Shares in the Provinces must be made in accordance with applicable Canadian securities laws. While such resale restrictions generally do not apply to a first trade in a security of a foreign, non-Canadian reporting issuer that is made through an exchange or market outside Canada, Canadian purchasers should seek legal advice prior to any resale of the New Shares.

The Company as well as its directors and officers may be located outside Canada and, as a result, it may not be possible for purchasers to effect service of process within Canada upon the Company or its directors or officers. All or a substantial portion of the assets of the Company and such persons may be located outside Canada and, as a result, it may not be possible to satisfy a judgment against the Company or such persons in Canada or to enforce a judgment obtained in Canadian courts against the Company or such persons outside Canada.

Unless stated otherwise, all dollar amounts contained in this document are in Australian dollars.

Statutory rights of action for damages and rescission. Securities legislation in certain Provinces may provide a purchaser with remedies for rescission or damages if an offering memorandum contains a misrepresentation, provided the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser’s Province. A purchaser may refer to any applicable provision of the securities legislation of the purchaser’s Province for particulars of these rights or consult with a legal adviser.

Certain Canadian income tax considerations. Prospective purchasers of the New Shares should consult their own tax adviser with respect to any taxes payable in connection with the acquisition, holding or disposition of the New Shares as there are Canadian tax implications for investors in the Provinces.
