Austco Healthcare Secures Phase 2 Order to Expand Jurong Health Complex Contract to AUD $5.5 Million

Austco Healthcare Limited (ASX: AHC) ("Austco") is excited to announce that it has been awarded a further AUD $1.7 million contract for Phase 2 of the Tacera Care Communications System refresh at the Jurong Health Complex in Singapore. This contract expansion follows the success of the AUD $3.8 million contract previously announced on 3 November 2023.

The Phase 2 upgrade will see the continuation of Austco's innovative solutions being implemented at Jurong Health Complex, which includes the 700-bed Ng Teng Fong General Hospital and the 400-bed Jurong Community Hospital. The installation will expand on the advanced communication capabilities introduced in Phase 1, enhancing patient care and operational efficiency through seamless integration with third-party systems.

Key Features of the Phase 2 Expansion Include:

- Further deployment of Austco's cutting-edge RTLS-enabled call points, improving staff locating and duress notifications.
- Enhanced workflow automation and patient safety features, ensuring that Jurong Health remains at the forefront of healthcare technology.
- Continued integration with other hospital systems, allowing for real-time communication and streamlined patient care processes.

"We are thrilled to continue our partnership with Jurong Health and support their mission of delivering world-class patient care," said Clayton Astles, CEO of Austco Healthcare. "The Phase 2 contract is a testament to the value of Austco's innovative healthcare solutions, enhancing patient outcomes and operational efficiency. It also solidifies our position as a leading provider of healthcare communication technology in Asia."

Jurong Health is renowned for its patient-centric approach and innovative healthcare solutions, which prioritize the well-being of its patients. The organization's commitment to providing quality healthcare services to the residents of Jurong and the surrounding areas has contributed to its reputation as a leading healthcare institution in Singapore.

This announcement was approved for release by the AHC Disclosure Committee.
