The vote is advisory only and does not bind the Directors or the Company. However, if Resolution 2 is not passed or is passed with 25% or more of the votes cast on the Resolution being cast against the Resolution:

- (a) the Company's Remuneration Report for the year ending 30 June 2024 will be required to provide an explanation of how the Board has responded or proposes to respond (if at all) to any comments made at the Meeting on the Remuneration Report proposed to be adopted by Resolution 2; and

The Chair of the Meeting intends to vote all available and undirected proxies in favour of all resolutions, subject to the above Voting Exclusions. In exceptional circumstances the Chair's intentions may change subsequently. # Explanatory Notes

These Explanatory Notes accompany and form part of the Notice of Meeting and should be read by Shareholders in conjunction with the Notice of Meeting.

The Directors recommend that Shareholders read these Explanatory Notes carefully before making any decisions in relation to the resolutions set out in the Notice of Meeting. If any Shareholder is in doubt as to how they should vote, they should seek advice from their legal, financial, or other professional adviser prior to voting.

1. Financial Statements and Reports

Section 250R(2) of the Corporations Act requires the financial report (which includes the financial statements and directors' declaration), the directors' report and auditor's report to be laid before the Annual General Meeting. There is no requirement either in the Corporations Act or PolyNovo's constitution for Shareholders to approve the financial report, the directors' report or the auditor's report. Rather, the purpose of presenting the reports is to give Shareholders an opportunity at the Meeting to ask questions and to make comments on these reports.

2. Other Business

- (d) No material adverse information has been revealed by the checks that PolyNovo has performed about Andrew.
- (e) Other than as set out above, Andrew is not considered to have any interest, position or relationship that might influence or reasonably be perceived to influence in a material respect his capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the Company and its Shareholders.

- (a) The Remuneration Report is set out on pages 28 to 37 of the Company's 2024 Annual Financial Report which is available at <http://www.polynovo.com.au> and www.asx.com.au, and which has been sent to those Shareholders who have requested the Annual Report in hard copy form.
- (b) Please note that the Corporations Act provides that the vote on this Resolution is advisory only and does not bind the Directors or the Company. The Chair will allow a reasonable opportunity for Shareholders to ask questions about, or make comments on, the Remuneration Report at the Meeting. The Company will take the outcome of the vote on the resolution comprising Item 4 into consideration and the comments made by Shareholders at the Meeting when reviewing the Company's remuneration practices and policies.
- (c) In accordance with the Corporations Act, if twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the eligible votes cast are voted against the adoption of the Company's Remuneration Report at two consecutive Annual General Meetings, Shareholders will be required to vote at the second of those Annual General Meetings on a resolution that another Meeting of Shareholders (Spill Meeting) be held within 90 days at which all of the Company's Directors:

5. Adoption of New Constitution

- (a) Under section 136(2) of the Corporations Act, a company may modify or repeal its constitution or a provision of its constitution by special resolution of Shareholders. Resolution 3 is a special resolution which will enable the Company to repeal its existing Constitution and adopt a new Constitution. The Company's existing constitution was adopted in 2006 when its name was "Metabolic Pharmaceuticals Limited", one of the two former names of the Company. The new Constitution is considered more up-to-date for a publicly listed company trading on the ASX.
- (b) It is not practicable to list all of the changes incorporated by the new Constitution in detail in this Explanatory Statement. A copy of the new Constitution can be requested from the Company Secretary at legal@polynovo.com. Below is a summary of key changes to the new Constitution (from the existing constitution).

Remuneration of Directors

The new Constitution provides the Directors as a whole (other than Executive Directors) may be paid or provided remuneration for their services the total amount or value of which must not exceed an aggregate maximum of $850,000 per annum (the amount most recently approved by Company shareholders). This amount may increase from time-to-time in accordance with shareholder approval at a general meeting.

Hybrid meetings

The new Constitution provides for the holding of hybrid meetings (i.e. general meetings where shareholders can choose to participate in the meeting virtually or attend in person at the physical location of the main meeting). There are a number of consequential changes to the new Constitution necessitated by the introduction of the hybrid meeting provisions. The new Constitution does not permit 'virtual only' general meetings.

Resolution in writing

The existing Constitution currently provides that a resolution in writing signed by all Directors will be treated as a determination of the Board passed at a Board Meeting. It is proposed to change the requirement to a majority of Directors signing by written resolution, to reduce the administrative burden of requiring all Directors to sign a written resolution for the purpose of Board determinations.

General amendments

General amendments to the new Constitution have been proposed which are administrative or minor in nature including, but not limited to:

- updating the name of the Company; and
  - updating references to bodies of legislation which have been renamed (e.g. references to the updated ASX Settlement rules).
- (c) If the Resolution 3 is not passed, the existing Company Constitution will continue with full force and effect.
