Seven Group Holdings to Update Company Name, ASX Ticker, and Website Address

Seven Group Holdings Limited (SGH) (ASX:SVW) announces its intention to change its registered company name to "SGH Limited". A special resolution to approve the name change will be presented to shareholders at the Company's AGM on 14 November 2024, as outlined in the Notice of Meeting lodged with the ASX today.

The Company's current name was adopted in 2010 and reflected the merging of Seven Network and WesTrac Holdings. Through disciplined execution and capital allocation, SGH has evolved into one of Australia's leading industrial-focused diversified operating companies. The rebrand aligns the company's name with the evolved nature of its core operations, and maintains a connection to its heritage.

Subject to shareholder approval, the name change is expected to take effect no later than 22nd November 2024, following ASIC approval and register update.

Additionally, SGH intends to change its ASX listing code from SVW to SGH, effective 18th November 2024. The ASX listing code change provides a stronger, more direct linkage between the company name and equity markets.

Finally, SGH will update its primary web address from www.sevengroup.com.au to www.sghl.com.au, effective concurrently with the ticker code change on 18th November 2024.

MD and CEO Ryan Stokes said:

"SGH has evolved into one of Australia's leading industrial-focused diversified operating companies. The rebrand aligns the company's name and ASX listing code with the evolved nature of its core operations while still retaining links to our heritage."

This announcement has been authorised to be given to ASX by the MD and CEO of SGH.
