The CEO will be free to deal with the Shares allocated on vesting and exercise of the Rights, subject to the requirements of Company's share trading policy.

Dividend and voting rights

Rights carry no entitlement to voting prior to being exercised into shares. At the time and to the extent Rights are vested, the Company will make a dividend equivalent payment in respect of dividends that would have been paid on the shares underlying vested rights during the measurement or service period. Participants also receive dividend equivalent payments in respect of vested Rights at the time a dividend is paid by the Company.

In the event of termination of employment by the Company for cause, or in the event of resignation, all unvested Rights will be forfeited unless otherwise determined by the Board. Resolution 6

Appointment of auditor

Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu has been the auditor of the Company since its appointment at the Company's annual general meeting on 20 November 2014.

Under the Corporations Act and the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board Code of Ethics, auditor rotation requirements apply to individuals who have played a significant role in the audit of listed companies. A significant role in the conduct of an audit is defined under section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001 to include the lead auditor, review auditor and a registered company auditor. Under section 324DA(1) of the Corporations Act, an individual cannot play a significant role in the audit of a list company for more than five (5) successive financial years. Stephen Tarling of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu has been the Company's lead auditor since 2019 and is required to rotate off as the Company's lead auditor at the end of the 2024 financial year.

With the requirement to change the Company's lead audit partner requirement, the Board and Management with support from the Audit and Risk Committee decided to put the external audit work out to tender.

The Board and management have been, and continue to be, satisfied with the audit services of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu. As the incumbent auditor Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu were invited to participate in the tender process. The tender process reviewed each firm's suitability for the role of external auditor with the significant consideration given to their independence, industry experience, resources and skill base. The outcome of the tender process was a recommendation that EY be appointed as the new auditor of the Company.

As a consequence, Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu has made an application to ASIC to consent to its resignation as auditor of the Company with effect from the end of the Annual General Meeting.

Once ASIC notifies Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu and the Company that it consents to Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu's resignation, Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu will give it's notice of resignation to the Company with effect from the end of the Annual General Meeting.

The Board and management would like to take this opportunity to thank Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu for their longstanding, professional and high quality service as auditor of the Company.

The Company has received notice from a Member of the Company nominating EY as the new auditor of the Company. In accordance with section 328B of the Corporations Act, a copy of the notice of nomination of EY received by the Company is attached in Annexure A.

Subject to the Company receiving all necessary consents and notices from ASIC and Shareholder approval at the Annual General Meeting, EY has been nominated and selected to become the new auditor of the Company effective from the end of the Annual General Meeting. EY has consented to act as auditor of the Company.

The Corporations Act requires that Shareholders approve the appointment of a new auditor.

Recommendation: The Directors recommend you vote FOR Resolution 6.

Proxy Form

How to Vote on Items of Business

If you wish to appoint the Chair of the Meeting as your proxy, mark the box in Step 1. If you leave Step 1 blank, or your named proxy does not attend the meeting or does not vote on a poll on a resolution in accordance with your instructions, the Chair of the Meeting will be your proxy in respect of that resolution.

All your securities will be voted in accordance with your directions (to the extent permitted by law).

APPOINTMENT OF PROXY

Voting 100% of your holding: Direct your proxy how to vote by marking one of the boxes opposite each item of business. If you do not mark a box your proxy may vote or abstain as they choose (to the extent permitted by law). If you mark more than one box on an item your vote will be invalid on that item.

Voting a portion of your holding: Indicate a portion of your voting rights by inserting the percentage or number of securities you wish to vote in the For, Against or Abstain box or boxes. The sum of the votes cast must not exceed your voting entitlement or 100%.

Appointing a second proxy: You are entitled to appoint up to two proxies to attend the meeting and vote on a poll. If you appoint two proxies you must specify the percentage of votes or number of securities for each proxy, otherwise each proxy may exercise half of the votes. When appointing a second proxy write both names and the percentage of votes or number of securities for each in Step 1 overleaf.

A proxy need not be a securityholder of the Company. A proxy may be an individual or a body corporate.

Voting restrictions for Key Management Personnel (KMP): The key management personnel (KMP) of the Company (which includes each of the directors) and their closely related parties will not be able to vote your proxy on Resolutions 1 and 5 and Robert Bishop and his associates will not be able to vote your proxy in favour of Resolution 5, unless you direct them how to vote or the Chair of the Meeting is your proxy. If you intend to appoint such a person as your proxy, please ensure you direct them how to vote on Resolutions 1 and 5 in step 2.

SIGNING INSTRUCTIONS FOR POSTAL FORMS

Individual: Where the holding is in one name, the securityholder must sign.

Joint Holding: Where the holding is in more than one name, all of the securityholders should sign.

Power of Attorney: If you have not already lodged the Power of Attorney with the registry, please attach a certified photocopy of the Power of Attorney to this form when you return it.

Companies: Where the company has a Sole Director who is also the Sole Company Secretary, this form must be signed by that person. If the company (pursuant to section 204A of the Corporations Act 2001) does not have a Company Secretary, a Sole Director can also sign alone. Otherwise this form must be signed by a Director jointly with either another Director or a Company Secretary. Please sign in the appropriate place to indicate the office held.
