ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING – CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

Good morning,

My name is Peter Lancken, and I am the Chairman of Acrow Limited. On behalf of the Board, I would like to welcome you to the 2024 Annual General Meeting. It is a pleasure to report that FY24 was another year of exceptional performance and growth for Acrow, driven by a combination of organic expansion, successful product development and deployment, and strategic acquisitions that further cement our position as a leader in smart integrated construction systems.

Acrow delivered record sales revenue of $215.3 million, a 28% increase over the previous year. After utilising our prior tax losses, we transitioned to being a full tax-paying company, reporting an underlying net profit after tax of $33 million, an 8% increase from the previous year. Despite this change in our tax status, our underlying pre-tax profit grew by 39%, highlighting the strong operating leverage within our business. And, our commitment to rewarding shareholders in our success delivered full year dividends of 5.9 cents per share, fully franked, an increase of 33% on the prior year.

From a strategic perspective, FY24 was another pivotal year for Acrow as we continued to grow our presence in the access scaffold segment of the industrial services sector. This sector is especially appealing to Acrow due to its earnings stability, driven by medium- to long-term contracts with blue-chip clients in industries like energy, mining, and infrastructure. Furthermore, the capital-light business model, combined with our engineering expertise and unique products and services, allows us to achieve strong margins while further diversifying our overall revenue base.

Assisting in driving this growth, in November 2023, we acquired MI Scaffold, a leading provider of scaffolding, rigging, and access solutions in North and Central Queensland, for $36.4 million. Funded through a mix of debt and equity, this acquisition has already outperformed our initial expectations, significantly boosting group performance.

In March 2024, we further expanded by acquiring Benchmark Scaffolding, a Townsville-based access solutions provider, for $9 million, strengthening our national network.

Both MI Scaffold and Benchmark Scaffolding have been successfully integrated into our operations, and their contributions to Acrow's revenue and earnings are expected to increase in the coming years.

Acrow continues to be a leader in the Australian construction market, particularly in the civil infrastructure sector. We operate in an environment where the Australian government is committing over $230 billion to major public infrastructure projects over the next five years. This presents a significant opportunity for Acrow, as we are well-positioned to capitalise on the increasing demand for our integrated formwork, scaffolding, and industrial services solutions.

Innovation and the development of new products are now deeply ingrained in our company culture. Our recent success in the Jumpform market highlights our ability to capitalise on new opportunities. The product has already attracted repeat customers, and the cross-selling of our Jumpform and screens businesses has significantly broadened our national sales pipeline. We are also developing other products that will further strengthen our strategy of creating new markets through innovative solutions.

FY24 also saw the successful rebranding of Acrow under the "One Acrow" banner, which has unified our expanding business and strengthened our national presence. The new corporate name, and branding, reflects the transformation of our company and aligns with our strategic vision of being a single, cohesive entity. This initiative has been well-received by our clients and has further elevated our market presence.

On the operational front, we continue to make strategic investments to streamline our business. In FY24, we embarked on the implementation of a new enterprise resource planning system, which will enhance our back-office operations and provide the technological platform for future growth. This investment is critical to ensuring that we maintain a scalable business and provide the highest level of service to our clients.

Our ability to consistently deliver a return on equity above 25% highlights the strength of our business model. We maintain a prudent capital management approach, evaluating investments with a 40% hurdle rate. Our strong operating cash flow enables us to repay debt, invest in the business, and continue providing solid returns to shareholders.

Looking ahead, I am confident that Acrow is well-positioned for continued success. Our formwork business remains robust as we actively seek new infrastructure projects and expand our presence in both the civil and commercial sectors. Additionally, our industrial services division now accounts for one-third of our revenue, providing a stable and diversified earnings stream. Furthermore, our recently expanded debt facility gives us the flexibility to pursue additional accretive acquisitions in this sector.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our shareholders for their continued support. Acrow's future is bright, driven by our CEO, Steven Boland, and his outstanding executive team, along with our dedicated employees. Their efforts ensure that we will continue to deliver strong returns to our shareholders and capitalise on the many opportunities ahead.

Thank you.
