

ASX RELEASE

18 June 2025

Legal proceedings by Redflex Traffic Systems Pty Ltd

Acusensus Limited (ASX:ACE) (Acusensus or the Company) announces that Redflex Traffic Systems Pty Ltd (Redflex) has served Federal Court proceedings on Acusensus IP Pty Ltd, a subsidiary of Acusensus, the Company and Acusensus' Managing Director, Alexander Jannink. The proceedings make claims relating to matters first arising from approximately eight years ago in relation to intellectual property rights. Redflex alleges ownership of intellectual property owned by the relevant Acusensus party, including patents.

The Acusensus parties note that in the Company's initial public offering Prospectus dated 6 December 2022, the Company disclosed that a competitor had made intellectual property right allegations in December 2020. The Company can now confirm that this competitor was Redflex.

The Acusensus parties intend to vigorously challenge and defend the claims made in the proceedings.

While the duration and outcome of any legal proceedings are inherently uncertain and it could take considerable time before there is a resolution in these proceedings, Acusensus will remain focused on executing its growth strategies, undistracted from its core mission to deliver public safety outcomes on a global stage with new and innovative technology.

Acusensus will update shareholders in accordance with its continuous disclosure obligations.

About Acusensus

Acusensus is a technology company that was founded in 2018 with a mission to design and develop artificial intelligence enabled road safety solutions. Collaborating with governments and commercial stakeholders to tackle distracted driving globally is Acusensus' first priority.

Acusensus has pioneered intelligent solutions that provide anywhere, anytime digital evidence that can be used in conjunction with law enforcement to drive behavioural change and improve road safety. Acusensus technology is used to detect and provide prosecutable evidence of distracted driving (mobile phone use), seatbelt compliance, speeding, railway crossing compliance and the monitoring of vehicles of interest.

Acusensus listed on the Australian Securities Exchange in January 2023. Acusensus is headquartered in Melbourne, Australia, with offices also in Sydney, Brisbane, Perth, Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch (New Zealand), London (United Kingdom) and Las Vegas (United States).
