LAND 156 – Initial Contracts Announcement

- Hon Pat Conroy, Minister for Defence Industry, has today announced the initial LAND156 contract awards
- DroneShield has received approximately $5 million in orders, of $16.9 million total

DroneShield Limited (ASX:DRO) (DroneShield or the Company) is pleased to share the announcement by the Hon Pat Conroy MP, Minister for Defence Industry, regarding the award of a contract under Project LAND156 to supply handheld counter-drone equipment to the Australian Defence Force.

DroneShield was awarded approximately $5 million of a $16.9 million in contracts (across 11 vendors, including 5 Australian Companies).

The contract involves the provision of portable drone detection and defeat systems designed to support ADF personnel in identifying and mitigating unmanned aerial threats. This procurement forms part of the Commonwealth's broader initiative to accelerate the acquisition of counter-drone capabilities.

DroneShield will deliver equipment in accordance with the contract terms and project timelines.

In addition to this equipment delivery, DroneShield stands ready to support the ADF as Systems Integration Partner under the broader LAND156 program. With deep expertise in sensor fusion, electronic warfare, and command-and-control integration, DroneShield is well positioned to contribute to the development of scalable, interoperable counter-drone architectures that meet Defence's evolving operational requirements.
