Operations Review

FY2025 was a year marked by

- Transformative changes to cost structure
- Continuing emphasis on transition of customers to the SaaS business model and a new platform
- A strategic review that led to an unsuccessful public offer by Seek Limited
- New product launches - new permissioning product, self sign-on for new clients, AI products, talent pool
- An increase in vendors offering checks on Xref's Trust Marketplace.
- Xref gaining the No. 1 ranking on the G2 establishing our credential as a market leader

Despite challenging market conditions, Xref maintained strong levels of customer satisfaction and employee engagement, demonstrating its ability to innovate while balancing costs and short-term cash flow.

Financial Review

As a result of the above operating decisions and market conditions, financial results for the year were a net loss of $2.4m, and an underlying positive EBITDA of $2.3m (negative EBITDA of $1.79m in FY24) and net cash generated in operations of $1.3m ($0.7m used in FY24).

Included in this result, are $0.7m costs incurred on the strategic review in FY25 leading to an unsuccessful public offer from Seek Limited.

Group revenue remained relatively stable despite recruitment levels being materially down, primarily due to the migration of clients to subscription agreements.

Total expenses were managed through cost reduction measures, including headcount reduction and office consolidation. The company also raised additional share capital via private placement, adding $3.6m to cash reserves, which is being prudently used for new product development and innovative marketing.

The company saw improved performance of FY25, with reduced losses and a return to positive EBITDA.

Outlook

Looking ahead to FY26, Xref is well-positioned for growth as the market continues to be in a state of turmoil. The company's focus areas will include:

1. Sales Growth: Business strategy for FY26 will be to have a sharper focus on identified target niches
2. Expense Management: Leverage technology to improve margins
3. Product Development: As in FY25, continue the momentum in new product launches through AI driven technology upgrades to our platform assets

With its lean operating structure, improved and scalable technology, and larger addressable market, Xref is well-prepared for the next stage of growth as the market shows delays in recovery.
