Vulcan completes Retail Shortfall Bookbuild

Vulcan Steel Limited (Vulcan) advises that it has successfully completed the retail shortfall bookbuild component (Retail Shortfall Bookbuild) of its 1 for 9 fully underwritten pro rata accelerated renounceable entitlement offer (Entitlement Offer). Vulcan has now successfully completed the Entitlement Offer, raising total gross proceeds of approximately A$87.1 million (approximately NZ$96.6 million) through the issue of 14.6 million new Vulcan shares (New Shares).

Summary of the Retail Shortfall Bookbuild

- Approximately 2.0 million New Shares were sold in the Retail Shortfall Bookbuild, which was conducted after market close on Tuesday, 16 September 2025.
- The Retail Shortfall Bookbuild cleared at a price of A$7.20 per New Share (Retail Bookbuild Shortfall Price), which represents a premium of A$1.25 above the offer price of A$5.95 per New Share (Offer Price).

Eligible retail shareholders who elected not to take up their entitlements in full and ineligible retail shareholders will receive A$1.25 (less any applicable withholding tax) for each New Share sold in the Retail Shortfall Bookbuild (Retail Premium) for their benefit.

The Retail Premium is expected to be paid to those retail shareholders on or about Monday, 29 September 2025.

Scaling has been applied to institutional and broker bids, and to applications for additional New Shares received from eligible retail shareholders who took up their entitlements in full under the retail entitlement offer (Retail Entitlement Offer), in accordance with the allocation policy set out in the Retail Offer Booklet.

Vulcan's Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer Rhys Jones, said: "We are extremely pleased with the significant level of shareholder support received across both the Institutional Entitlement Offer and Retail Entitlement Offer. The Entitlement Offer was structured to provide fairness to shareholders, whilst also securing funding for Vulcan's acquisition of Roofing Industries Limited. This acquisition accelerates Vulcan's growth strategy, opening a new vertical while broadening and enhancing its product offerings."

Allotment of New Shares

The New Shares to be issued as part of the Retail Entitlement Offer and the Retail Shortfall Bookbuild will be allotted and commence trading on the ASX and NZX on Monday, 22 September 2025. Those New Shares will rank equally with existing Vulcan shares from the date of issue and will be entitled to any future dividends paid by Vulcan after the relevant allotment date.
