Without limitation, the Hedging Party's unwind, termination or liquidation of Hedge Positions may be effected through an accelerated purchase transaction of Shares (which may result in a price per Share at a substantial premium to the then prevailing market price of the Shares, and take into account such other customary costs and expenses associated with such transactions), a purchase of Shares over a substantial period of time through one or more trading venues or other sources of liquidity for the shares, the entry into or unwind, termination or liquidation of one or more derivative transactions, or any combination thereof.
