Melbourne, Australia - PEXA Group Limited (ASX: PXA) (“PEXA” or “Group”) today announces that it has decided to exit its majority-owned Digital Solutions¹ businesses (“Digital Solutions”), following the previously announced strategic review. The 1H26 results including the items noted below, remain subject to review procedures by the Group’s external auditor.

Russell Cohen, CEO and Group Managing Director of PEXA, said, “Our decision to exit the Digital Solutions businesses reflects our disciplined focus on our core capabilities to drive long-term, profitable growth for our shareholders. While quality assets with strong management teams, the strategic review confirmed that PEXA was not the best long-term natural owner of these businesses. With the strategic review now complete, management is fully focused on accelerating our growth strategy and unlocking value from existing operations and future opportunities. I would like to express gratitude and recognise the excellent leadership of Natalie Field, who has led PEXA’s Digital Solutions segment since 2024, and who has been critical in both defining PEXA’s strategy in data monetisation and also preparing the businesses to succeed under new ownership.”

Consistent with this decision, these assets will be classified as ‘held for sale’ and their FY26 results (including related impairments) and comparative FY25 results will be reported as discontinued operations. Following a thorough review process, circa $26 million in net impairments² will be taken against these assets. The ultimate exit of these assets will remove the need to allocate capital thereafter to support the businesses’ operations and growth.

PEXA has completed its exit from majority-owned Land Insight and its minority investment in Elula. The exit process is underway for majority-owned Value Australia and .id, with completion anticipated by mid calendar year 2026. Proceeds from the sales will be deployed consistent with PEXA’s capital management strategy and growth initiatives.

² Impairments are net of a fair value gain related to a financial liability in connection with the Value Australia business and impact from minority owned investment classified as held for sale.

1H26 Significant Items guidance provided to reflect the restructure of the business

For its 1H26 results, the Group is expecting to report significant items of between $7 to 8 million, excluding the $26 million net impairment outlined above, which is included in the results of discontinued operations. The costs largely relate to redundancy costs in connection with the 1H26 cost optimisation program in Australia, as well as restructuring costs related to the exit of the Digital Solutions business in the half. The cost optimisation program is expected to deliver >$10m in annual cash savings to the Group.

Restatement for discontinued operations

As a result of the decision to exit the Digital Solutions businesses, these assets will be classified as ‘held for sale’ and their FY26 results (inclusive of the related impairment) and comparative FY25 results will be reported as discontinued operations. Additionally, the remaining Digital Solutions products which are adjacent to the Exchange and complement our strategic direction, will be integrated into the Exchange segment, which will be renamed “Australia”. A restatement and reconciliation of the Group and segment results for 1H25 and FY25 can be found in Appendix 1 to this announcement.

Restatement of Core Operating FY26 Guidance

Consistent with the requirement to restate the income statement for prior comparative periods for discontinued operations, the Group has restated its FY26 Guidance for core operations to exclude discontinued operations and to reflect market strength in both Australia and the UK in 1H26, including record transaction volumes in Australia in December 2025. Key guidance³ metrics are outlined below:
