Update on APAC matter

Dexus provides the following update on the APAC matter outlined in its announcement on 5 June 2026.

The Court today made orders which dissolve the injunctions referred to in our 29 May 2026 announcement. This means that the forced sale process of the Dexus Bloc shares will continue, and that Dexus's governance, board appointment, voting and information rights are now suspended, all subject to the determination of any appeal from the orders of 29 May 2026 (Appeal) and the consequences that may flow from that.

During the hearing today, Senior Counsel for one of the non-Dexus Bloc shareholders identified various risks and practical difficulties which certain non-Dexus Bloc shareholders saw with proceeding with the forced sale process, having regard to the potential determination of any Appeal.

It remains open to the Dexus Bloc shareholders to approach the NSW Court of Appeal to apply for a further injunction until the determination of any Appeal which they file, or to otherwise reach agreement with APAC and the non-Dexus Bloc shareholders on satisfactory undertakings pending any Appeal.

The Dexus Bloc shareholders have until 26 June 2026 to file any Appeal.

Dexus will provide further updates on the APAC matter in accordance with its disclosure obligations.

Authorised by Brett Cameron, General Counsel and Company Secretary of Dexus Funds Management Limited
