a2MC declares $300 million special dividend

The a2 Milk Company (the Company, a2MC) confirms the Board has now declared a $300 million special dividend that will be fully franked and unimputed to be paid on 24 July 2026.

The declaration of the special dividend follows a2MC's announcement on 22 June 2026 that it had received approval from the State Administration for Market Regulation (SAMR) to transition the two China label infant milk formula product registrations acquired in connection with the a2 Pokeno facility to a2™ branded products¹.

Chair, Pip Greenwood said: "With the necessary China regulatory approvals now in place, the Board is pleased to declare a $300 million special dividend. This reflects our commitment to delivering shareholder returns while maintaining disciplined capital management."
