2 July 2026

Appointment of Managing Director and CEO

Northern Star Resources Ltd (ASX: NST) is pleased to announce the appointment of Suresh Vadnagra to succeed Stuart Tonkin as Managing Director and CEO of Northern Star, effective 5 October 2026.

Mr Vadnagra is a highly accomplished global mining executive with more than 25 years of experience spanning strategy, operations, major projects, transactions, business transformation and enterprise leadership across large, complex, multi-commodity portfolios.

He is currently Head of Glencore Nickel and Zinc Industrial Assets based in Switzerland, with responsibility for a diverse global portfolio of more than 25 operations spanning open pit and underground mines, smelters and refineries. He oversees a major projects pipeline and leads a large scale, complex, organisation spanning Australia, North America, Asia and Europe.

Prior to his role at Glencore, Mr Vadnagra was the Chief Technical and Projects Officer at Newcrest, where he was accountable for Newcrest's major projects, technical teams and technology. As part of his role, he oversaw Newcrest's substantial growth pipeline including Red Chris block cave, Cadia's future panel caves, Havieron, Wafi-Golpu and various other major projects across the portfolio. He was closely involved in broader executive management including people, sustainability, business development and capital management. He played a key role in reshaping Newcrest's portfolio strategy.

Prior to Newcrest, Mr Vadnagra held roles with BHP, Iluka Resources and MMG, including as Executive General Manager Operations with MMG. This included his role at Las Bambas in Peru, where he led the later stages of ramp-up and transition to stable operations of one of the world's top 10 largest copper mines by production.

Mr Vadnagra holds a Bachelor of Engineering (Mechanical) (Hons) from the University of Western Australia as well as a Master of Business Administration from Southern Cross University.

Mr Vadnagra's appointment is the culmination of a comprehensive search conducted by the Board of Northern Star, with the involvement of a leading global executive search firm, as part of the Board's ongoing succession planning processes. The Board assessed numerous internal and external candidates across the gold sector, diversified mining companies, base metals producers and adjacent mining-related organisations.

Commenting on the appointment, Michael Chaney AO, Chairman of Northern Star said:

"We are very pleased to have a leader of Suresh's calibre join the Northern Star team. Suresh is an accomplished mining executive with the experience and capabilities to unlock the full potential of our assets and our people - from ramping up KCGM, progressing Hemi and optimising all of our assets. The Board believes his broad operational experience and leadership qualities can deliver significant value for all of our shareholders. Critically, his track record of execution and deep commitment to safety will ensure that we continue the vital work of keeping all of our people safe and helping them achieve their full potential."

"I take this opportunity again to acknowledge and thank Stu Tonkin for his leadership over the last 13 years and for the significant contributions he has made to the development of Northern Star. As previously announced, Stu will be stepping down as Managing Director and CEO during the first quarter of FY27."

"The Board has resolved to appoint Northern Star's Chief Financial Officer, Ryan Gurner, as deputy CEO, effective immediately, working alongside Stu until his departure. During the period between Stu's departure and Suresh's commencement, Ryan will serve as interim CEO until Suresh assumes his new role."

Commenting on his appointment, incoming Managing Director and CEO Suresh Vadnagra said:

"I am very excited to be joining Northern Star at a time of significant opportunity for the Company and its portfolio of high-quality, long-life assets. I look forward to stepping into the role and working with the team at Northern Star to progress the major development projects, enhance operational performance and further strengthen the portfolio."

More information on the key terms of Mr Vadnagra's employment agreement is provided in the Appendix.
