- First Au Limited (ASX: FAU) has completed the acquisition the Riverina East Gold Project comprising 11 separate mineral licences from Viking Mines (ASX: VKA) under the terms announced to the ASX on 29 June 2026
- The Project is well serviced by existing infrastructure, located approximately 50km west of the township of Menzies and is proximal to Ora Banda Mining's (ASX: OBM) Riverina Gold Mine
- Riverina East includes the First Hit Gold Mine which features historical production of 30koz @ 7.7g/t Au

First Au Limited ("FirstAu", "FAU" or "the Company") is pleased to advise that the Company has completed the acquisition of the Riverina East Gold Project ("Riverina East" or the "Project") from Viking Mines Ltd (ASX: VKA; "Viking") of a package of tenements and tenement interests under the terms disclosed to the ASX on 29 June 2026.

The Riverina East Gold Project incorporates 255km^2 and includes 11 separate mineral licences (2ML's,4 EL's and 5 PL's) and 1 exploration licence application. The Project is located west of the West Australian goldfields town of Menzies, and immediately north of Ora Banda Ltd's (ASX: OBM) Riverina Gold Mine.

Riverina East hosts the First Hit Gold Mine with historical production of 30k oz @ 7.7g/t Au and the extensive Bifrost Mineralisation site, which is considered highly prospective for gold.

First Au's Executive Chairman, Daniel Raihani commented:
"The Riverina East Gold Project acquisition is consistent with First Au's strategic ambition to become a geologically driven West Australian gold exploration and development company. Along with the Barlee and Gimlet Gold Projects, we are building a portfolio of gold assets in proven mineral provinces."
