LODE RESOURCES LAUNCHES INVESTOR HUB TO STRENGTHEN DIRECT SHAREHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

Lode Resources Ltd (ASX: LDR) ("Lode" or the "Company") is pleased to announce it has adopted the Investor Hub platform, giving shareholders a new, direct channel to access Company announcements, updates and events as Lode advances the Montezuma Silver-Antimony Project and its broader NSW and Tasmanian exploration portfolio.

Investor Hub adds a direct, self-service layer to Lode's investor relations program, making it easier for existing and prospective investors to follow the Company's news flow and engage directly with management.

For personal use only

What this means for investors

- Real-time alerts: Shareholders can register once to receive ASX announcements the moment they are released, rather than relying on third-party feeds or manual checks.
- Direct access to management: Investor Hub's Q&A function allows shareholders to put questions directly to the Board and management team, with responses published for all investors to see.
- On-demand webinars and briefings: All investor webinars, presentations and briefing recordings will be centralised on the platform, making it simpler to catch up on key updates such as drilling results and project milestones on-demand.
- One dashboard, full history: Investors can view Lode's complete announcement history, shareholding data and company documents in a single, easy-to-navigate hub.

Lode Resources Managing Director, Keith Mayes, said:

"As we continue to grow the resource and undertake development studies at Montezuma, we want our shareholders as close to the action as possible. Investor Hub gives our investors faster access to our news and a direct line to management, and we'd encourage all shareholders to register."

How to register

Shareholders and interested investors can register here to start receiving Lode Resources updates directly.

This announcement has been authorised for release to the market by the Managing Director, Keith Mayes.
