Dear ASX Listings Compliance

Request for trading halt

The Star Entertainment Group Limited (ASX code: SGR) – Listing Rule 17.1

The Star Entertainment Group Limited (ASX code: SGR) (The Star) requests that a trading halt be applied to its ordinary shares in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 17.1, effective immediately.

In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 17.1, and in support of this request, The Star provides the following information:

- (a) the trading halt is requested in anticipation of the Federal Court of Australia delivering judgement on 28 October 2026 in relation to AUSTRAC's civil penalty proceedings brought against its subsidiaries, The Star Pty Ltd and The Star Entertainment Qld Ltd;
- (b) The Star considers that the trading halt is necessary to ensure that trading in its securities does not occur in an uninformed market, pending the release of an announcement regarding the judgment and its effect on The Star;
- (c) The Star requests that the trading halt continues until the earlier of:
 - i. such time as The Star releases an announcement in relation to the judgment; or
 - ii. the commencement of trading on 30 October 2026; and
- (d) The Star is not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted or of any other information necessary to inform the market about the trading halt.

Yours sincerely

Bruce Mathieson
Group Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director
